The above charges apply only when the consignment would not come to a larger sum at the rate per ton or per cwt., or, in the case of a mixed consignment, when the entire carriage would amount to less by charging the small articles as "smalls" and the bulk at the rate per ton or per cwt. than by charging the whole weight at the highest class rate to which any of the articles belong.

Exceptions are not unfrequently made, owing to various circumstances, as, for instance :—

Is there any special charge for cattle to the Royal Agricultural Society's shows? If so, state it.

The North-eastern Railway Company make no charge whatever for cattle, sheep, &c. carried in cattle waggons by goods trains for exhibition at the Royal Agricultural Society's shows. They are carried free both to and from the shows if remaining the property of the exhibitor.

INQUIRY No. 9.—As to Charges at different Periods.

Give, for the lines included in your former returns, the information in the annexed table, attending to the following conditions:—

The amounts are to represent the average rates charged per mile.

For goods they are to be the rates for long distances, and including terminal charges.

In the cases of railways opened since 1840 or 1850, give the rates at the time of opening, and substitute this date at the top of the column.

The term "long distances" in this return is assumed to mean from 100 to 150 miles.

The general tendency during the last 20 years has been to a reduction of rates.

(b.) Although the existing lines of the North Staffordshire Railway, the lines to which this return refers, extend over 147 miles, the longest length over which traffic can be conveyed in one direction is only 48 miles 51 chains, say from Willington to Colwich viâ Stoke.

(c.) No fixed or special sum is ever set aside for terminal or station accommodation. The terminals will entirely depend upon the quantity and the nature of the traffic to be conveyed, the amount of shunting to be performed, the time the sidings will be occupied, and many other circumstances.

(c.) The terminal is in all cases included in the foregoing charges.

(d.) The railway company do not undertake the loading or unloading of any of these articles.

(d.) The cost of loading and unloading is not included in the foregoing charges.

GENERAL REMARKS.

(a.) The minimum charge per ton for each article for the shortest distance.

The rate given is not the minimum charge per ton which the company charge for each article for the shortest distance, but is the highest rate of freight they demand under any circumstances. As an illustration: the company are now carrying bricks a distance of 12 miles in large quantities, say in train loads, for 6s. per truck load, which is equivalent to 6d. per ton.

Limestone.—The whole of the limestone carried over the North Staffordshire Railway is brought from the Cauldron Low Quarries, near Froghall, which were the property of the Trent and Mersey Canal, but, since the amalgamation, are now in the possession of the North Staffordshire Company. The limestone is said to be peculiarly suitable for use as a flux in the manufacture of pig iron, and immense quantities are exported to South Staffordshire. The average price of the stone delivered, say, at Etruia Station, near Earl Granville's iron works, a distance of 36 miles from the quarries, is 3s. 6d. per ton. This sum includes the value of the stone, the getting, locomotive power, use of waggons, road toll, terminal expenses, and every other charge.

3. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?

No; but the charges stated are never exceeded.

4. If not, state the nature of the exceptions.

To meet the exigencies of the trade the North Staffordshire Company frequently carry at exceptionally low rates. As an illustration: during a strike of the colliers in North Staffordshire in the summer of 1864, the North Staffordshire Company conveyed coal from the Derbyshire and Leicestershire coal fields at a rate of freight barely in excess of the cost of working expenses. Had the railway company not done so, the colliers' strike would have led to a total stoppage of the potting trade in the Staffordshire potteries district; and more recently, during the strike of the puddlers in the iron trade, the company have carried puddled bars at exceptionally low rates of freight.

5. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?

At owner's risk.

6. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

7. Do you undertake to deliver this class of traffic within a specified time?

No special undertaking is either required or given. The company are bound to deliver within a reasonable time, and the safe and proper working of the traffic necessitates that this shall be done.

8. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

24 hours, or one clear day.

9. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

1*s.* 6*d.* per waggon per day.

(B.) In Owners' Waggons.

General Remarks.

Owners' Waggons.—The only traffic carried (locally) upon the North Staffordshire Railway in owners' waggons is coal, ironstone, iron ore, coke, and salt, in fact the company find waggons for the conveyance of every description of traffic, with the exception of salt, which article is so very injurious to the trucks that it requires a special stock to be kept for its conveyance. Traders upon this line of railway are so satisfied of the advantages to be derived by the company being the owners of the whole of the stock of waggons working upon the line, that within the last 18 months they have sold, and the company have purchased, at least nine-tenths of the entire stock of owners' waggons which were working (locally) upon this line of railway.

10*d*. Do the charges include returning empty waggons?
The company have not hitherto made any charge to returning empty waggons.

11. Are the above charges uniformly applied between all all stations on your system of railways?
No; but the charges stated are never exceeded.

12. If not, state the nature of the exceptions.
The same general remark will be a reply to this question as was given to No. 4.

13. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?
At owner's risk.

14. Do you undertake to convey this class of traffic within a specified time?
No special undertaking is either required or given. The company are bound to deliver within a reasonable time, and the safe and proper working of the traffic necessitates that this shall be done.

15. And to return the empty waggons within a specified time?
And if so, in what time?
The same general remark will be a reply to these questions as was given in No. 14.

16. Do you allow demurrage on owners' waggons when not returned within the specified time?
No.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions?
Yes.

18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic?
All North Staffordshire junctions are stations, but they are not considered as stations when through charges are made.

19. If not, state the exceptions.
See reply to No. 18.

20. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?
The waggons are labelled through to their destination, the local charges are made to the junctions, and the company taking the traffic forward is furnished with a declaration giving the names and address of the consignor and consignee, a description of the traffic, the numbers and owners of the waggons, the gross weight, the tare, and the net weight.

CONTRACT CHARGES, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—

a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?

b. Or how otherwise?

22. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?
None, except such as may be referred to in the general remarks in answer to questions 4 and 12.

For the whole of the articles included in the Special Class of the Clearing House Classification, Appendix CP.	Two shillings per ton. See Note (a.) against remarks to Inquiry No. 1.	Two tons.	Six miles.	From 1½*d*. to 1½*d*. per ton per mile.	Although the lines of the North Staffordshire Railway, the lines to which this return refers, extend over 147 miles, the longest length over which traffic can be conveyed in one direction is only 48 miles 51 chains, say from Wellington to Colwich viâ Stoke.	No fixed or special sum is ever set aside for terminal or station accommodation. The terminals will entirely depend upon the quantity and the nature of the traffic to be conveyed, the amount of shunting to be performed, the time the sidings will be occupied, and many other circumstances.	Yes.	No special charge is made. We always expect the consignor and consignee to assist in loading and unloading.		None.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?	No, but these charges are never exceeded.
3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.
4. Is the traffic of articles in this return conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?	At company's risk, except when the owners wish to accept the risk of carriage, when a reduction in rate of from 5 to 20 per cent. is made.
5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.
6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time?	No special undertaking is either required or given. The company are bound to deliver within a reasonable time, and the safe and proper working of the traffic necessitates that this shall be done.
7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?	48 hours, or two days.
8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?	At some stations for an unlimited time, at others for three days, according to the accommodation we are in a position to give.
9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?	From 2*d.* per package per week to 6*d.* per ton per week, according to the nature of the traffic.
10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?	From 1*s.* 6*d.* to 2*s.* per waggon per day.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	We make through rates with every company in Great Britain, except three companies south of the Thames.
12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?	All North Staffordshire junctions are stations, but they are not considered as stations when through charges are made.
13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—	No.
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?
16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?
17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	Not in all cases, but we always send by the most expeditious route.
18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.	The shortest mileage rates always apply to the longest route, i.e., the shortest mileage always fixes the rate.

INQUIRY No. 3.—Questions in regard to Railway Charges.

1. State in the following Table the charges for the conveyance of the various articles named, between stations on your own lines, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement, including collection and delivery. Railway waggons - -	Under three tons 3*d.* per waggon per mile; over three tons, 4*d.* per waggon per mile. No less charge than 5*s.* per waggon.
Statuary - - -	No traffic, would be carried under special arrangement only.
Returned empty packages	Not exceeding 50 miles, 4*d.* per cwt. No less charge than 4*d.* per package for any distance.
Small parcels - -	6*d.* Parcels, 30 miles - 6*d.* 9*d.* 1*s.* 1*s.* 6*d.*; above 30 miles 9*d.* 1*s.* 1*s.* 6*d.* 2*s.* (14 lbs. 28 lbs. 56 lbs. 112 lbs.)

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?

No.

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

See Question 4, Inquiry No. 1, as an illustration. Many similar cases can be given.

4. Is the traffic of these articles carried at the company's risk (excepting the articles otherwise specified)?

All the articles are carried at company's risk except by special agreements and the articles enumerated in the Carriers Act, 1 Will. 4. c. 68.

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

If the consignor desire that the goods shall be carried at the risk of the owner a reduction in the rate is made ranging from 5 to 20 per cent.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time?

No special undertaking is either required or given. The company are bound to deliver within a reasonable time, and the safe and proper working of the traffic necessitates that this shall be done.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

48 hours or two days; but for this class of traffic the loading and unloading in the great majority of cases is done by the company's servants.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?

At some stations we warehouse free, at others we charge after three clear days; this depends entirely upon the nature of the traffic and the amount of accommodation the company can afford.

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?

At some stations nothing, at others from 2*d.* per package per week, to 6*d.* per ton per week, according to the nature of the traffic.

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

No charge where the company have warehouse accommodation, at other stations 1*s.* 6*d.* per waggon per day on N.S. waggons.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

We make through rates with every company in Great Britain, except three companies south of the Thames.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?

All North Staffordshire junctions are stations, but they are not considered as stations when through charges are made.

13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

The waggons are labelled through to their destination, the local charges are made to the junctions, and the company taking the traffic forward is furnished with a declaration giving the names and address of the consignor and consignee, a description of the traffic, the numbers and owners of the waggons, the gross weight, the tare, and the net weight.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?

No.

16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?

None, except such as may be referred to in the general remarks in answer to Questions 4 and 12, Inquiry No. 1.

17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

Not in all cases, but we always send by the most expeditious route.

18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.

The shortest mileage rates always apply to the longest route, i.e., the short mileage always fixes the rate.

19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owner's waggons? If so, state the particulars.

No, with the exception of furniture, which is sometimes carried in owner's vans loaded upon railway company's waggons.

„ „ ordinary passenger trains „ - - - - 24 miles per hour.
„ „ parliamentary „ „ - - - - 22 „

Give some general information as to the nature and extent of your special excursion traffic, stating the frequency of the excursion trains, the places between which they run, the fares charged per mile for each class; the number of passengers of each class generally carried in each train, and the average speed, including stoppages.

The bulk of our excursion traffic is with the under-mentioned places. We have given the results of the trains run from 1st May to 30th September 1864, the traffic in that year showing a good average. In the cases of Chester and Rhyl, &c. and Alton the trains ran weekly; in the others only on special occasions.

Return Tickets for Horses.—Available for the day of issue only, are charged at a fare and a half.
Race Horses in Vans.—To be charged the rate for each horse in addition to the rate as for a private carriage.
Mare and Foal.—To be charged one and a half times the rate for a horse.
Entire Horses.—To be charged for as one horse, except when other horses which might be loaded in the same box are required to be excluded and conveyed in another vehicle. In such cases the charge to be as for two horses.

Dealers' Horses (in Boxes).—One horse according to the scale; two or more, 3*d.* per horse per mile.

Persons in charge of Horses loaded in boxes are to be charged third-class fares when riding in the boxes; but when travelling otherwise, to pay according to the class of carriage in which they travel; the number of third-class tickets must in no case exceed the number of horses.

Carriages.—When two small carriages consigned to one person can be carried safely upon one truck, they will be charged a fare and a half.

Commercial Travellers' Vans.—When signed for to be conveyed at owner's risk, and not exceeding two tons weight, 6*d.* per mile; when above two tons weight, not to be conveyed by passenger trains.

Bath Chairs.—When conveyed in the guard's van or on the top of a carriage, to be charged one third the rate for a private carriage; when requiring a separate vehicle two thirds of this rate.

Cattle in Horse Boxes.—To be charged for as horses. When more than one stall is required for one animal, the charge to be made as for two horses. A cow and calf to be charged the same rate as a mare and foal.

All fractional parts of a mile are to be charged for as a mile, and no less distance than 15 miles to be charged.

RATES for DOGS and SMALL ANIMALS per PASSENGER TRAIN.

Name the stations between which the highest rates for the conveyance of live stock are charged, showing the charge for each description, and the distances between the stations?

The rates are uniform.

Name the stations between which the lowest rates for the conveyance of live stock are charged, showing the charge for each description, and the distances between the stations?

The rates are uniform.

Is there any special charge for cattle to the Royal Agricultural Society's shows? If so, state it.

When cattle, implements, or agricultural produce is forwarded over this line of railway, either for the Royal Agricultural Society's shows or for the various county shows, they are always conveyed the double journey for the single fare, provided the cattle, implements, or produce remains the property of the exhibitor, and at owner's risk.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways? — Yes.

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

4. Is the traffic of articles in this return conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise? — At owner's ris k.

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time? — No.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?	Twelve working hours.
8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?	Depends on circumstances.
9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?
10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?	3*s.* per day.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	Yes.
12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?	No.
13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts. If so,—	No.
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?
16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?	No.
17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	Yes.
18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.	Yes.

Glasgow and South-western Railway.—Inquiry No. 3.—continued.

4. Is the traffic of these articles carried at the company's risk (excepting the articles otherwise specified)?	Yes.
5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.
6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time?	No.
7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?	Twelve working hours.
8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?	No specified time.
9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?
10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?	3*s.* per waggon per day.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	Yes.
12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?	No.
13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—	No.
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?
16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?	No.
17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	Yes.
18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.	Yes.

3. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?

No, as the circumstances vary, so the charges between different points or for particular descriptions of traffic vary.

4. If not, state the nature of the exceptions.

The nature of the exceptions is, for example, where traffic is conveyed for long distances, such as clay conveyed from Poole to London, a distance of 120 miles, the charge in that case being one halfpenny per ton per mile, exclusive of terminal charges: Again, coal, bricks, &c. conveyed for long distances are conveyed at reduced rates.

5. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?

At owner's risk.

6. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

See No. 5.

7. Do you undertake to deliver this class of traffic within a specified time?

No, but the same despatch is given to this description of traffic as to any other.

8. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

48 hours.

9. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

3*s.* per day.

(B.) In Owners' Waggons.

10. State in the following Table the charges on your own line for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement:—

10*d.* Do the charges include returning empty waggons?

In all cases where owners' waggons are used the charges include the return of the empty waggons.

11. Are the above charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?

No.

12. If not, state the nature of the exceptions.

The nature of the exceptions is, for example, where traffic is conveyed for very long distances, and for particular descriptions of traffic.

13. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?

At owner's risk.

14. Do you undertake to convey this class of traffic within a specified time?

No, but it is conveyed with as much despatch and regularity as any other traffic.

15. And to return the empty waggons within a specified time?

No.

And if so, in what time?

The waggons are, as a general rule, returned immediately they have been unloaded.

16. Do you allow demurrage on owners' waggons when not returned within the specified time?

No.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? — In general through rates exist.

18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic? — Not as stations, but as places of interchange.

19. If not, state the exceptions. — See No. 18.

CONTRACT CHARGES, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,— — No.

a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried? — See No. 21.

b. Or how otherwise? — See No. 21.

22. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions? — No.

INQUIRY No. 2.—Questions in regard to Railway Charges.

FOR ARTICLES CARRIED FROM STATION TO STATION ONLY, OR FROM JUNCTION TO JUNCTION ONLY, ON ALL YOUR LINES, IN COMPANIES' WAGGONS.

1. State in the following Table the charges on your lines for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement:—

Name of Article.	(a.) What is the Minimum Charge per Ton for each Article for the shortest Distance?	(a.) What is the Minimum Load of each Article below which you refuse to take it at these Rates?	(a.) What is the Distance to which this Charge is applicable?	(b.) What is the Charge per Ton per Mile when this Distance is exceeded, and up to 50 Miles?	(b.) What is your Scale of Charges according to Distance for Distances beyond 50 Miles?	(c.) What is the Charge per Ton for Terminal or Station Accommodation?	(c.) Is it included in the foregoing Charges?	(d.) What is the Charge for Loading and Unloading when done by the Company?	(d.) Is it in addition to the foregoing Charges?	Is any and what Deduction made when the Loading or Unloading is done by the Owner?
For the whole of the articles included in the Special Class of the Clearing House Classification. Appendix C1.	In some districts 2*s.* 6*d.* up to 10 miles; in other districts 3*s.* 4*d.* up to 20 miles.	Two tons.	Ten or twenty miles respectively.	2*d.* per ton per mile additional up to 30 miles. 1½*d.* above 30 and up to 60 miles. 1¼*d.* " 60 " 90 miles. 1¼*d.* " 90 " 120 miles. 1*d.* " 120 " 150 miles. 1*d.* above 150 miles.	"	Varies as circumstances require.	In some cases.	9*d.* per ton for each service.	Yes.	No such charge is made for either service.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways? — Yes, as a general rule, but in numerous instances lower rates are charged.

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions. — Generally low-priced articles, which will not bear a higher rate.

4. Is the traffic of articles in this return conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise? — At owner's risk.

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time? — No, but no delay in delivery occurs.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic? — 24 hours for each service.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge? — Not generally warehoused.

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired? — Varies according to circumstances.

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons? — 3*s.* per day.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions. — Yes, by mutual agreement when it is necessary and desirable to do so.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?
13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception. — Not as stations, but as places of interchange.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?
16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions? — No, but special rates are given for large quantities or for certain descriptions of goods, applicable to all parties alike.

17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions. — Not always, but as a rule by the quickest and most convenient route.

18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply. — Yes.

19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owner's waggons? If so, state the particulars. — Not as a general rule.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?	No, there are numerous exceptions.
3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	Exceptions may generally be described thus:—Import and export goods from and to Southampton and other ports are charged at lower rates. Goods conveyed for long distances are charged at lower rates.
4. Is the traffic of these articles carried at the company's risk (excepting the articles otherwise specified)?	Yes.
5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.	By special risk note, and as respects goods included in the Carriers' Act.
6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time?	No, but within a reasonable time.
7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?	The company perform the loading and unloading.
8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?	Not generally warehoused.
9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?	Varies according to circumstances.
10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?	None.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	Yes, by mutual agreement, when it is necessary and desirable to do so.
12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return? 13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.	Not as stations, but as places of interchange.
14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies when through charges are not given?	Local rates are charged. In all other respects the traffic is conveyed throughout without change of waggon in quantities of one ton or upwards.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,— a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried? b. Or how otherwise? 16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?	No, but special rates are given for large quantities, or for certain descriptions of goods, applicable to all parties alike.
17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	Not always, but as a rule by the quickest and most convenient route.
18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.	Yes.
19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owner's waggons? If so, state the particulars.	No.

INQUIRY No. 4.—As to Acts of Parliament authorizing Tolls and Rates.

Give a list of the Acts of Parliament now in force, under which you are authorized to levy tolls and rates on the lines included in your former return.

(B.) In Owners' Waggons.

10. State in the following Table the charges on your own line for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement:—

Name of Article.	(a.) What is the Minimum Charge per Ton for each Article for the shortest Distance?	(a.) What is the Minimum Load of each Article below which you refuse to take it at these Rates?	(a.) What is the Distance to which this Charge is applicable?	(b.) What is the Charge per Ton per Mile when this Distance is exceeded, and up to 50 Miles?	(b.) What is your Scale of Charges according to Distance, for Distances beyond 50 Miles?	(c.) What is the Charge per Ton for Terminal or Station Accommodation?	(c.) Is it included in the foregoing Charges?
For the same Articles as in Table (A.) (See preceding page.) No private owners' waggons are sent over the line except for conveyance of coals, for which no reduction in rates is made.

10*d*. Do the charges include returning empty waggons?
11. Are the above charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?
12. If not, state the nature of the exceptions.
13. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?
14. Do you undertake to convey this class of traffic within a specified time?
15. And to return the empty waggons within a specified time?
And if so, in what time?
16. Do you allow demurrage on owners' waggons when not returned within the specified time?

No private owner's waggons are sent over the line, except for conveyance of coals. These waggons are unloaded and returned free of charges; demurrage is not charged upon them.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions?

Yes.

18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic?

Yes.

19. If not, state the exceptions.
20. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

Traffic for which through charges are not given is interchanged at all junctions with other companies under arrangements for its dispatch in the same waggons when in full loads, and for transhipment when in loads of less than two tons.

CONTRACT CHARGES, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?
22. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?

We make a small per-centage allowance to three or four of our largest customers, but beyond that we have no contract rates.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?
3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.
4. Is the traffic of articles in this return conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?

Yes.

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time?

Within about 24 hours.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

48 hours.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?

48 hours.

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?

Various.

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

3*s.* per truck after 48 hours.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

Yes.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?

Yes.

13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

Traffic for which through charges are not given is interchanged at all junctions with other companies under arrangements for its despatch in the same waggons when in full loads, and for transhipment when in loads of less than one ton.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?

We make a small per-centage allowance to some of our largest customers, but beyond that we have no contract rates.

16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions? — No.

17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions. — As a rule it is, but to the large manufacturing districts in the midland and northern counties it is apportioned as equally as possible.

18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply. — Yes.

19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owner's waggons? If so, state the particulars. — Yes, salt.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions. — Yes.

4. Is the traffic of these articles carried at the Company's risk (excepting the articles otherwise specified)?

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition. — Generally at company's risk.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time? — Within about 24 hours.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic? — 48 hours.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge? — 48 hours.

2. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired? — Various.

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons? — 3*s.* per day after 48 hours have expired.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions. — Yes.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?

13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception. — Yes.

14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given? — Through traffic for which through charges are not given is interchanged at all junctions with other companies under arrangements for its despatch in the same waggons when in full loads, and for transhipment when in loads of less than a ton.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,— a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried? b. Or how otherwise?	We make a small per-centage allowance to some of our largest customers, but beyond that we have no contract rates.
16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?	No.
17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	As a rule it is, but to the large manufacturing districts in the midland and northern counties it is apportioned as equally as possible.
18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.	Yes.
19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owner's waggons? If so, state the particulars.	No.

INQUIRY No. 4.—As to Acts of Parliament authorizing Tolls and Rates.

Give a list of the Acts of Parliament now in force, under which you are authorized to levy tolls and rates on the lines included in your former return.

The tolls and rates which the company were authorized to levy by former Acts were all repealed by the company's "Mitcham and Tooting Lines Act, 1863" (26 & 27 Vict. c. 218.), and in all subsequent Acts which the company has obtained they have adopted the clauses in that Act.

GREAT WESTERN RAILWAY.

INQUIRY No. 1.—Questions in regard to Railway Charges.

1. Give a list of the lines to which this return refers, and state their respective lengths.

This return refers generally to the whole of the Great Western system of railways, including the lines leased and worked by them, but with respect to some of them not owned by the Great Western Company there is some difference in the mode of charging, but which is not very material.

3. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?

Not uniformly, the traffic and circumstances frequently necessitating a variation in the charges.

4. If not, state the nature of the exceptions?

Traders finding their own waggons. Guaranteeing a large minimum annual payment. Full train loads. Shipping trade. Competition by sea, and other circumstances.

5. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?

As regards ordinary risk, at owner's.

See above answers.

7. Do you undertake to deliver this class of traffic within a specified time?

No. In certain cases the public ask for a special arrangement, which is done.

8. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

No specific time for loading. For unloading 24 hours in some cases, and 48 in others.

9. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

3*s.* per day in some cases, 3*s.* 6*d.* per day in others, advancing according to the time detained, with a view of inducing parties not to detain waggons.

(B.) In Owners' Waggons.

Yes.

11. Are the above charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?

12. If not, state the nature of the exceptions?

The rates are not uniform between all places, as explained in No. 4.

13. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?

As regards ordinary risk, at owner's.

14. Do you undertake to convey this class of traffic within a specified time?

No.

15. And to return the empty waggons within a specified time?

And if so, in what time?

No arrangement as to the return of empty waggons, but owner's trucks are treated, so far as regards dispatch, precisely the same as the company's.

16. Do you allow demurrage on owner's waggons when not returned within the specified time?

No. The company do not make it compulsory for parties to find their own waggons, it is optional for them to put the waggons on the line.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions?

Yes.

18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic?

19. If not, state the exception?

Practically they are not, as the traffic is generally charged at through rates. There are a few cases where traffic is booked locally, when a terminal charge is made for junction accommodation or service.

20. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

The traffic is sent through in the same waggon, when containing above one ton of goods or a full load of minerals.

CONTRACT CHARGES, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?

Yes, for coal.

On a minimum annual payment.

22. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?

Full train loads, and other special conditions.
For guaranteed quantities sent in owner's trucks over distances exceeding 100 miles, yearly payment not to be less than 5,000*l.* Freight to uniformly seven-sixteenths of one penny per ton per mile with the following terminals:—Freights exceeding per annum 40,000*l.*, 3*d.*; 30,000*l.*, 6*d.*; 20,000*l.*, 9*d.*; 15,000*l.*, 1*s.*; 10,000*l.*, 1*s.* 3*d.*; 5000*l.*, 1*s.* 6*d.* For guaranteed quantities sent in owner's trucks distances over 50 and under 100 miles, freight to be uniformly ½*d.* per ton per mile with following terminals:—Per annum, 15,000*l.*, 4*d.*; 10,000*l.*, 6*d.*; 7,500*l.*, 8*d.*; 5,000*l.*, 10*d.*; 2,500*l.*, 1*s.*

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your systems of railways?

Not uniformly. The traffic and circumstances frequently necessitate a variation in the charges.

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

When traders' find their own waggons, When there is a large trade. When for a shipping trade. Competition by sea, and other circumstances.

4. Is the traffic of articles in this return conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?

As regards the ordinary risk, generally at owner's.

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

See answer to No. 4.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time?

No. In certain cases, if the public ask for a special arrangement, it is arranged.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

No specific time for loading. For unloading 24 hours in some cases, and 48 hours in others. This is regulated according to station accommodation, and the nature and extent of the traffic.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?

Sometimes a week, in other cases a fortnight, and in others a month.

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?

Varying from 2*d.*, 4*d.*, and 6*d.* per ton per week, according to the different districts, the cost of service, and accommodation required.

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

3*s.* per day in some cases, and 3*s.* 6*d.* in others, advancing according to the time detained, with a view of inducing parties not to detain waggons.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

Yes.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?
13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

Practically they are not, as the traffic is generally charged at through rates, but when a transfer from one gauge to another has to be performed, a charge is sometimes made.

14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

The traffic is sent through in the same waggon when containing a full load, and as a rule invoiced through.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,— a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried? b. Or how otherwise?	Not for traffic included in this statement.
16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?	No.
17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	Not in all cases, where the company have more than one route the traffic is classified and worked by the route which is most convenient and expeditious.
18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.	On our own line, yes.
19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owner's waggons? If so, state the particulars.	Very seldom.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?

Not uniformly. The traffic and circumstances frequently necessitate a variation in the charges.

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

Shipping trade, competition by sea, and other circumstances.

4. Is the traffic of these articles carried at the company's risk (excepting the articles otherwise specified)?

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

Generally at company's risk. When at owner's risk a lower rate is charged to the public.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time?

No, but they are delivered as soon as possible, depending on the distance, the load in the truck, &c.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

From 24 to 48 hours allowed.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?

The charge will vary according to the district, the cost of service and the accommodation required,

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

3*s.* per day in some cases and 3*s.* 6*d.* in others, advancing according to the time detained, with a view of inducing parties not to detain waggons.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

Yes, generally.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?

13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

Practically they are not, as the traffic is generally charged at through rates, but in cases where transfer from one gauge to another has to be performed a charge has to be included for that service and for the accommodation.

14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

In many cases through trains, and generally through waggons when the load is sufficient.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,— a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried? b. Or how otherwise?	No.
16. Have you any special contracts independent of the oregoing scale of charges or conditions?	No.
17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	Not in all cases, where the company have more than one route the traffic is classified and worked by that route which is most convenient and expeditious.
18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.	Yes, generally.
19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owner's waggons? If so, state the particulars.	No.

FOR ARTICLES CARRIED FROM STATION TO STATION ONLY, OR FROM JUNCTION TO JUNCTION ONLY, ON ALL YOUR LINES, IN COMPANIES' WAGGONS.

1. State in the following Table the charges on your lines for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement :—

Name of Article.	(a.) What is the Minimum Charge per Ton for each Article for the shortest Distance?	(a.) What is the Minimum Load of each Article below which you refuse to take it at these Rates?	(a.) What is the Distance to which this Charge is applicable?	(b.) What is the Charge per Ton per Mile when this Distance is exceeded, and up to 50 Miles?	(b.) What is your Scale of Charges according to Distance for Distances beyond 50 Miles?	(c.) What is the Charge per Ton for Terminal or Station Accommodation?	(c.) Is it included in the foregoing Charges?	(d.) What is the Charge for Loading and Unloading when done by the Company?	(d.) Is it in addition to the foregoing Charges?	(d.) Is any and what Deduction made when the Loading or Unloading is done by the Owner?
For the whole of the articles included in the SPECIAL CLASS of the Clearing House Classification Appendix CP.	1*s.* 8*d.* to 2*s.* 6*d.*	Two tons.	Six miles.	1½*d.* to 2*d.*, But in each case never above the charges allowed by Act.	1*d.* to 1½*d.*	This varies according to circumstances.	It is in addition to the foregoing charges.	The rule is for the sender or consignee and the company to assist each other. There are cases where it is wholly done by the company, and for which no extra charge is made.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?

No. We have to be guided by what is best for the development of the traffic.

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

To meet competition by sea and from other markets, the nature and value of the traffic and what rate it can bear, and shorter railway routes.

4. Is the traffic of articles in this return conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?

At company's risk generally.

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

We charge higher class goods at special class rate when owner takes the risk.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time?

No.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

Two days.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?

These articles are not warehoused, except grain, flour, and malt.

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?

This varies according to article, locality, and accommodation, and in a few instances no charge is made.

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

Yes; by mutual arrangement, when required to do so.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?

Yes, unless such are entered "through" to stations beyond the junction.

13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

When the traffic is carried from or to the junction at local rates.

14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

It is entered to the junction at local rates, and if the waggon contains two tons or upwards it is allowed to go forward to the destination of the goods.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—

a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?

b. Or how otherwise?

16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?

No, but special rates are made applicable to all persons under the same circumstances, for guaranteed quantities.

17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

No. There are many cases where the shortest route is not the most expeditious, arising from a variety of causes.

18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.

Yes.

19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owner's waggons? If so, state the particulars.

Yes. Creosote, gas and coal tar, and salt, are carried in owner's waggons, and this is taken into consideration in fixing the rates for such articles.

INQUIRY No. 3.—Questions in regard to Railway Charges.

1. State in the following Table the charges for the conveyance of the various articles named, between stations on your own lines, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement, including collection and delivery. Specify against any of these articles those which are from station to station only.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?
3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

No; there are many exceptions made in order to meet the necessities of the trade, its proper development, and competition.

4. Is the traffic of these articles carried at the company's risk (excepting the articles otherwise specified)?
5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

At company's risk, excepting those provided for in the Carriers' Act, when above 10*l.* value. For some goods special arrangements are made, should the owner wish to take the risk, by charging the rate for a class lower than that in which the goods are named.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time?

Within a reasonable time.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

This is done by the company, who, for their own interest, use every exertion to do it quickly.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?
9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?

Varies according to article and locality.

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

Generally the goods are collected, loaded, unloaded, and delivered by the company, and consequently demurrage does not arise.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.	Yes, by mutual arrangement, when required to do so.
12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?	Not when carried at through rates.
13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.	When there are no through rates, the goods being entered locally.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,— a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried? b. Or how otherwise?	No.
16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?	No special contracts, but we have special rates, which are quoted to all parties under the like circumstances.
17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	No, although the shortest route governs the rates charged, it is in some cases more expeditious and also economical to forward by a somewhat longer route.
18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.
19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owner's waggons? If so, state the particulars.	We have only one case, where sometimes a locomotive engine builder uses his own waggon.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?

No.

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions?

See attached list, marked (A.)

4. Is the traffic of articles in this return conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?

At company's risk, excepting where specified in this return at owner's risk.

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time?

We undertake to deliver the traffic within a reasonable time.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

The company's servants load and unload this traffic when the services are not performed by the owner's servants.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?

48 hours for all descriptions of traffic, excepting grain and flour; and for particulars in respect to grain and flour, see attached list marked (B.)

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?

1*d.* per ton per day for all descriptions of traffic, excepting grain and flour; and for particulars in respect to grain and flour, see attached list marked (B.)

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

No demurrage on trucks accrues; see reply to No. 7 above.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

Yes, by mutual arrangement between the respective companies.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?

No, excepting when there happens to be no through rate for the traffic, and in all such cases the traffic is entered at local rates to the junction.

13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

The traffic is forwarded to destination in due course, and conveyed at local rates to the junctions most convenient of access to the railway company's system for which the traffic is intended.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—

a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?

b. Or how otherwise?

16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?

No.

17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

Yes, with but very few exceptions, and then only because the route is better although longer; for example, from Peterborough to Chelmsford the traffic is carried viâ Stratford, although the shortest route is viâ Haverhill and Sudbury.

18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.

Yes, the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route.

19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owner's waggons? If so, state the particulars.

No, excepting where specified in this return.

Under the questions shown in the three columns (letter d) it will be seen that the replies have been in many instances "Nil" "No." It is therefore necessary to explain that with the traffic specified, it is the practice of the owner's servants to assist the company's servants in loading and unloading.

Exceptional rates.

The maximum rate for grain and flour from London to any Great Eastern station is 10*s.* per ton.
The maximum rate for grain from any Great Eastern station to London is 11*s.* 8*d.* per ton.
The maximum rate for flour from any Great Eastern station to London is 10*s.* per ton.
The maximum rate for packed manures from London to any Great Eastern station is 11*s.* 6*d.* per ton.
The maximum rate for oil cake between any two Great Eastern stations is 9*s.* per ton.
The mileage scale of rates is departed from in cases where the railway has to complete with sea, river, or canal; for example,

		s.	d.
Grain, Ipswich to London, is carried	68 miles at	7	0 per ton.
Packed manures, London to Lynn	$98\frac{3}{4}$	8	0 "
" " and Wisbeach	$95\frac{1}{2}$
Oil cake, Lynn and Yarmouth	69	6	0 "
Flour, Yarmouth to London	121	8	0 "
Malt "		9	8 "

Also in cases where the traffic has to be sent from one point to another which is but a very short distance by road; for example,
Grain, Brentwood to Romford - - - - - - 7 miles - - 2*s.* 6*d.* per ton.

Clause 1. Corn or grain is warehoused free of charge at Blackwall station 14 clear days, at Brick Lane and Stratford stations 7 clear days, and at country stations 5 clear days, after carriage over the railway; after which the following scale of charges for warehouse rent comes into operation:—

Corn, grain, or seed in owner's sacks - - - - - - $\frac{1}{2}$d. per quarter per week.
Ditto in company's sacks - - - - - - $1\frac{1}{2}$d. "

Clause 2. Corn or grain is not received at Brick Lane or Stratford stations to await order prior to being carried over the railway.

Clause 3. At Blackwall corn or grain received ex ship is warehoused 5 clear days free of charge; if, at the expiration of that time, no instructions have been received for carriage rent is charged from the date of the original delivery, upon the scale given in clause 1. There is also a charge of 1*s.* per ton for landing and reloading, in addition to the usual wharfage charge of 6*d.* per ton.

Clause 4. At country stations corn or grain is received prior to carriage over the railway, and warehoused free of charge for 5 clear days; if not removed at the expiration of that time, rent is charged from the date of the original delivery, upon the scale given in clause 1. If removed, however, without being sent over the railway at all, the charge will be 3*d.* per quarter per week from the date of the original delivery.

Clause 5. Grain, corn, and seed delivered at Great Eastern stations in Great Eastern sacks and afterwards forwarded to stations on foreign lines of railway. When merchants deliver grain at a Great Eastern station in Great Eastern sacks and the grain is afterwards sent to stations on foreign lines, the charge to be made for sack hire and rent is $1\frac{1}{2}$d. per quarter per week, to commence the day of delivery, and parts of a week charged as a week.

Clause 6. Flour, bran, pollard, middlings, and grain offal generally, received at Brick Lane, Stratford, or Blackwall from country stations, are charged 1*d.* per sack (or per quarter) for warehouse rent, irrespective of time, when forming part of running stocks; but if otherwise, the charge will be $\frac{1}{2}$d. per sack per week in addition to the 1*d.* per sack originally charged.

Clause 7. At country stations the charge is $\frac{1}{2}$d. per sack per week, commencing at the expiration of 5 clear days after carriage over the railway, during which interval no charge is made.

Clause 8. Parts of a week charged as a week, both in respect to grain and flour.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?

No.

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

See notes marked E, F, G, H, I, K, L, and M, for particulars of exceptional rates.

4. Is the traffic of these articles carried at the company's risk (excepting the articles otherwise specified)?

Yes.

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time.

Within a reasonable time.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

The company's servants load and unload this traffic.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?

48 hours.

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?

1st class goods 2*d.* per ton per day.
2nd „ 3*d.* „ „
3rd „ 4*d.* „ „
4th „ 5*d.* „ „

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

No demurrage is incurred.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

Yes, by mutual arrangement between the respective companies.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?

No, excepting when there happens to be no through rate for the traffic and in all such cases the traffic is entered at local rates to the junction.

13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

The traffic is forwarded to destination in due course and conveyed at local rates to the junctions most convenient of access to the railway company's system for which the traffic is intended.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—

a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?

b. Or how otherwise?

16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?

Yes; for particulars, see note N.

17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

Yes, with but very few exceptions; and then only because the route is better although longer; for example, from Peterborough to Chelmsford the traffic is carried viâ Stratford, although the shortest route is viâ Haverhill and Sudbury.

18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.

The mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route.

19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owner's waggons? If so, state the particulars.

No, excepting where specified in this return.

B.

Exceptional charges are occasionally made for the collection or delivery of goods when such goods are sent in large quantities, and also in cases where such traffic forms one of the staple commodities for the accommodation of the Great Eastern district; for example, the charge for cartage of guano, packed manures, oil cake and other special class traffic, for distances, exceeding three miles and not exceeding five miles from our London goods station, is 4*s.* 2*d.* per ton.

The rates for traffic mentioned in all classes, with the exception of special and mineral, are as a rule inclusive of collection and delivery, and the explanation given in note C in respect to the charges made for cartage and other terminal services will show how such rates are made up.

C.

Column (d.)—In regulating the charges for porterage and station accommodation the various circumstances preclude the possibility of fixing one sum as applicable to the whole of the stations on the Great Eastern railway; the charges however vary from 2*s.* per ton to 4*s.* 2*d.* per ton in London and from 1*s.* 8*d.* per ton to 3*s.* 4*d.* per ton in the country.

Column (e.)—The charges for collection and delivery. The same remark will apply as given under the head of Column (d.) as to exceptional circumstances, but as a rule the charge for cartage in London varies from 3*s.* 4*d.* per ton to 7*s.* 6*d.* per ton, and in the country from 1*s.* 8*d.* per ton to 4*s.* 2*d.* per ton.

D.

The following mileage scales apply to traffic against which is remarked, "See note D," namely,—

Fire-engines:

Engines, steam, portable:

For distances of 29 miles and under, 3*d.* per ton per mile, and 1*s.* 6*d.* per ton added.

For distances exceeding 29 miles, up to 45 miles, 9*s.* per ton.

For distances exceeding 46 miles, 2*d.* per ton per mile, and 1*s.* 6*d.* per ton added.

Minimum weight three tons per truck, and lowest charge 5*s.* per ton, at owner's risk, and exclusive of the loading and unloading.

Hay and straw:

For distances not exceeding 25 miles, 4*d.* per ton per mile. Minimum 5*s.* per ton.

For distances exceeding 25 miles, but not exceeding 50 miles, 3*d.* per ton per mile. Minimum, 8*s.* 4*d.* per ton.

For distances exceeding 50 miles, 2½*d.* per ton per mile. Minimum, 12*s.* 6*d.* per ton.

No less charge than for 30 cwts. per waggon for hay, and 25 cwts. per waggon for straw.

Contractors waggons and materials, excepting rails and chairs:

For distances 1 to 50 miles inclusive, 3*d.* per ton per mile.

For distances 51 to 75 miles inclusive, 12*s.* 6*d.* per ton.

For distances exceeding 75 miles, 2*d.* per ton per mile. Minimum, 5*s.* per ton.

Locomotive engines and tenders, on their own wheels:

For distances 1 to 100 miles inclusive, 2*d.* per ton per mile.

For distances 101 to 133 miles inclusive, 16*s.* 8*d.* per ton.

For distances exceeding 133 miles, 1½*d.* per ton per mile. Minimum 5*s.* per ton.

New railway waggons on their own wheels and weighing three tons and under are carried at 3*d.* per waggon per mile; if above three tons in weight at 4*d.* per waggon per mile; but if conveyed beyond 50 miles then the charge is 3*d.* per waggon per mile for waggons of all weights.

Returned empty packages between all Great Eastern stations except London, namely,—

For distances 1 to 30 miles, 3*d.* per cwt.

For distances 31 to 60 miles, 5*d.* per cwt.

For distances 101 to 160 miles, 7*d.* per cwt.

For the following no charge is made:

Ale and porter casks.

Cats meat hampers.

Cream cheese boxes.

Empty sacks.

Lime, oyster, cockle, periwinkle, whelk, bark, manure, rag, and wool bags.

Meat hampers.

Is there any special charge for Cattle to the Royal Agricultural Society's Shows? If so, state it.

THE ROYAL AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY'S SHOWS.

The conditions on which live stock and implements exhibited at the above shows will be carried over the lines of the Great Eastern Railway Company are as under:—

1st.—Live stock and implements going to the shows will be charged the full rates. If unsold, and the property of the original exhibitor, they will be returned free; but if sold, the ordinary rates must be charged on the return journey as well.

2nd.—Drovers and others in charge of live stock and travelling by the same train to pay third-class fare.

3rd.—The carriage of live stock and implements to be prepaid.

4th.—The certificate of the Society to be produced before either live stock or implements are returned free.

5th.—The Company disclaim all risk in the loading and unloading, and also in the conveyance of live stock as well as implements both to and from the shows.

6th.—No straw to be allowed in the cattle trucks; sawdust or tan may be provided and used by the senders if they wish.

Live stock, if sent in cattle trucks by goods trains, will be charged at the ordinary cattle rates. If sent in horse boxes by passenger train, the following rates will have to be charged:—

Beasts.—The ordinary horse rates.

Single Sheep or Pigs.—1*d.* per mile; minimum charge, 5*s.*

Sheep and Pigs.—5*d.* per box per mile if the number of sheep be more than one but under ten; if the number be in excess of ten, 10*d.* per box per mile. In vans on carriage trucks, 6*d.* per truck per mile.

The rates include the return of cattle free, if they remain unsold and the property of the original exhibitor. If sold or the owner be charged, the same rates to be charged on the return journey.

There are no through rates from Great Eastern Stations to Plymouth, therefore implements must be invoiced and sent to Brick Lane, whence they will have to be carted to the Great Western Railway Station at Paddington.

Live stock by passenger train must be sent to Bishopsgate; by goods train to Stratford or Tottenham, the senders in each case making their own arrangements for cartage across London.

GENERAL REMARKS.

The distances over which goods traffic is carried on this line are so short, and the line itself is so circuitous that our goods rates have not been calculated at any uniform rate per mile, but have been struck to meet the competition by road. The rates quoted per mile will therefore not work out exactly correct for all our stations, an average mileage rate having been deduced as nearly as practicable from the arbitrary rates charged to the different stations.

Goods are frequently conveyed at rates less than those quoted by special agreement. We have generally to make a bargain for large consignments, we frequently take coarse traffic, such as the articles named in this list, for a minimum charge of 5*s.* per five ton waggon for distances under 10 miles, and 10*s.* per waggon for 27 miles, and intermediate distances in proportion; but always in such cases with an understanding as to the quick discharge of our waggons.

FOR ARTICLES CARRIED FROM STATION TO STATION ONLY, OR FROM JUNCTION TO JUNCTION ONLY, ON ALL YOUR LINES.

(A.) IN COMPANIES' WAGGONS, WHEN LOADED AND UNLOADED BY THE OWNERS.

2. State in the following Table the charges on your lines for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement.

Name of Article.	(a.) What is the Minimum Charge per Ton for each Article for the shortest Distance?	(a.) What is the Minimum Load of each Article below which you refuse to take it at these Rates?	(a.) What is the Distance to which this Charge is applicable?	(b.) What is the Charge per Ton per Mile when this Distance is exceeded, and up to 27 Miles?	(b.) What is your Scale of Charges according to Distance for Distances beyond 50 Miles?	(c.) What is the Charge per Ton for Terminal or Station Accommodation?	(c.) Is it included in the foregoing Charges?	(d.) What is the Charge for Loading and Unloading when done by the Company?	(d.) Is it in addition to the foregoing Charges?
Bricks, common	1*s.* 3*d.*	5 tons	10 miles	1½*d.*	Our distances do not exceed 30 miles.	No charge made.	Yes.	We would not load or discharge a larger quantity than a portion of a waggon load. Smaller quantities than waggon loads (5 tons) when loaded by the company are charged at the rate of goods of the next higher class, which as well as I can average our rates would be a fourth more than the rates quoted.	Yes.

See under head of general remarks above.

4. If not, state the nature of the exceptions.

Do.

5. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?

Do.

6. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

Conveyed at owners' risk if in 5 ton lots loaded and unloaded by themselves.

Small quantities under 5 tons which are charged for at the higher rate are conveyed at the risk of the company.

7. Do you undertake to deliver this class of traffic within a specified time?

Yes; within 24 hours, unless we guard ourselves against liability for delay in the receipts given for the goods.

8. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

24 hours nominally is the time allowed, but we cannot enforce demurrage. The unreasonable detention of our waggons is one of the chief difficulties which we have to contend with.

9. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

(B.) In Owners' Waggons.

10. State in the following Table the charges on your own line for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement.

Nothing done in owner's waggons.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions?
18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic?
19. If not, state the exceptions?
20. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

Our traffic is all local.

CONTRACT CHARGES, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?

We have no contracts for goods traffic.

22. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?

Answered under general remarks above.

General Remarks.

This line being exposed to competition by road over its whole length, special bargains have frequently to be made for heavy consignments at rates much below those quoted.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?

As nearly as I can average them, our rates not being calculated on any fixed mileage principle.

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

4. Is the traffic of articles in this return conveyed at the owners' risk, or otherwise?

At company's risk.

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time?

No; but we run daily goods trains.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

24 hours nominally, but we cannot enforce demurrage.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?

We seldom can enforce any charge; 24 hours nominally.

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?

No fixed charge.

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

See No. 7; 3*s.* per day nominally, but we cannot enforce it.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11 Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

All our traffic is local.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?	All our traffic is local.
13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.	Ditto.
14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?	Ditto.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—	No.
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?
16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?	Having to compete with the road over the whole of our system we have several special rates, chiefly with flax mills, at lower rates than those quoted, but wherever such is the case the rates are open to all parties similarly circumstanced.
17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	See No. 11.
18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.	Ditto.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?

As nearly as I can average, our rates not being calculated on any fixed mileage principle.

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

4. Is the traffic of these articles carried at the company's risk (excepting the articles otherwise specified)?

All at company's risk.

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time?

No, but we have daily goods trains.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

24 hours nominally.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?

24 hours nominally, but we seldom can enforce any charge.

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?

No fixed charge.

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

3*s.* per waggon per day nominally, but it cannot be enforced.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

All our traffic is local.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?

Ditto.

13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

Ditto.

14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

Ditto.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?

Having to compete with the roads over the whole of our system, we have several special rates chiefly with the owners of spinning mills at lower rates than those quoted, but wherever such is the case the rates are open to all parties similarly circumstanced.

16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?

No.

17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connection with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

See No. 11.

18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.

See No. 11.

19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owners' waggons? If so, state the particulars.

INQUIRY No. 6.—As to Rates for Parcels.

Give, in reference to the lines included in your former Returns, the general rates charged for parcel traffic, both by passenger and goods trains, according to weight and distance.

Also add particulars of any important exceptions made to these general rates.

By Passenger Trains.	Parcels.
	Under 3 lbs.	3 lbs. to 13 lbs.	14 lbs. to 27 lbs.	28 lbs. to 56 lbs.	And for every 14 lbs. or fraction of 14 lbs. above 56 lbs.

23 to 33 „	0 4	0 6	0 8	0 10	0 2

Every fraction of a mile is counted as a mile.

These rates include delivery in Belfast within the Municipal Lamps, and within the Lamps of Ballymacarrett, or collection from Town Office (2, Donegal Street). Delivery to the distance of half a mile beyond the Lamps, 3*d.* extra.

Parcels must be delivered at the Parcels Booking Office, five minutes before the departure of each train.

Exceptions:—

Daily newspapers' parcels to all stations - - - - - 7*l.* per annum.
Tri-weekly newspapers' parcels to all stations - - - - 4*l.* „

By goods train:—

Small parcels not usually carried by goods trains, as all goods traffic on this line is subject to a minimum charge of 6*d.*

5. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise? — At owner's risk.

6. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

7. Do you undertake to deliver this class of traffic within a specified time? — No.

8. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic? — Twenty-four hours is the time allowed, but it is generally detained longer, and it is with great difficulty we can obtain any charge for demurrage.

9. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons? — Three shillings per diem.

(B.) In Owners' Waggons.

For the whole of the articles included in this list see Table (A.), except Salt in bulk.

[Same Table as (A.)]

Name of Article.	(a.)			(b.)		(c.)
	What is the Minimum Charge per Ton for each Article for the shortest Distance?	What is the Minimum Load of each Article below which you refuse to take it at these Rates?	What is the Distance to which this Charge is is applicable?	What is the Charge per Ton per Mile when this Distance is exceeded, and up to 50 Miles?	What is your Scale of Charges according to Distance for Distances beyond 50 Miles?	What is the Charge per Ton for Terminal or Station Accommodation?	Is it included in the foregoing Charges?
Salt, rock, and unmanufactured.	10*d.*	5 tons - -	9 miles - -	We only carry salt rock from Duncrue to Belfast.

10*d.* Do the charges include returning empty waggons? — Yes.

11. Are the above charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways? — We only carry salt rock in owners' waggons.

12. If not, state the nature of the exceptions.

13. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise? — At owner's risk.

14. Do you undertake to convey this class of traffic within a specified time? — Yes.

15. And to return the empty waggons within a specified time? — Yes.

And if so, in what time? — The same day as loaded.

16. Do you allow demurrage on owners' waggons when not returned within the specified time? — No.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? — Through charges are made with the companies named, but we have no junction with any other lines.

18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic? — Yes.

19. If not, state the exceptions.

20. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

CONTRACT CHARGES, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise? — No.

22. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions? — No.

Goods classified at owners' risk to be charged 25 per cent. more than the above rates when conveyed at the companies' risk.

The carriage of goods is to be charged at the tonnage rates according to the classification, no less charge being made than the following, viz.:—For any distance under 25 miles, 6*d*; 25 to 40 miles, 9*d*; above 40 miles, 1*s*.

The rates do not include cartage either to or from the stations.

Any fractional part of a ¼ cwt. is to be charged as a ¼ cwt.; any fractional part of a penny to be reckoned as a penny; and any fractional part of a mile is to be reckoned as a mile.

The charges for storage will be—For every week or part of a week, after forty-eight hours, second class goods, 6*d*. per ton; third class goods, 9*d*. per ton; fourth class goods, 1*s*, per ton; fifth class goods, 1*s*. 6*d*. per ton; and sixth class goods, 2*s*. per ton.

When small packages of goods accompany other goods of a higher class they must be weighed and charged along with them. When they accompany other goods of a lower class they must be charged for at their actual weight in their own class, no less charge than 6*d*. being made. When they are from a different sender they must be charged separately.

When goods are liable to be charged in two classes according to the quantity forwarded, the charge at the higher rate is not to exceed that which would be made for a consignment of heavier weight entitled therefrom to be carried at the lower charge, but the latter calculation is in such instances to be applied.

RATES OF CHARGE FOR RETURNED EMPTIES.

1. All returned empties (excepting brewers' empties, vitriol bottles, empty sacks, and empty bottles), are to be charged by weight in 3rd class.

2. Brewers' returned empties are to be charged at the following rates:—

	d.
Quarter cask	1½ each.
Half cask	2 „
Barrel	3 „
Hogshead	4 „

3. Returned empty bottles, sacks, packs, and wrappers, are to be charged by weight in 2nd class.

4. Minimum charge, 2*d*.

The carriage of returned empties is to be prepaid except when they are of sufficient value to leave no doubt of their being released by consignees, but in no case must any money be paid out upon them.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?
3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

As near as may be having regard to competition and local circumstances.

4. Is the traffic of articles in this return conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?
5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

At company's risk, except by special agreement.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time?

No; but we have goods trains daily to all stations.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

Twenty-four hours. It is however much longer in practice.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?

Forty-eight hours.

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?

We have no specified charge.

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

Three shillings per day, but rarely enforced.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

Yes; no exceptions.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?

Yes.

13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

No exceptions.

14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

Through charges in all cases.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—

a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?

b. Or how otherwise?

Belfast and Northern Counties Railway.—Inquiry No. 2.—continued.

16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions? — No.

17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions. — Yes.

18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply. — Yes.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	Yes; no exceptions.
12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?	Yes.
13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.	No exceptions.
14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?	Through charges in all cases.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—	No.
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?
16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?	No.
17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	Yes.
18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.	Yes.
19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owner's waggons? If so, state the particulars.	No.

INQUIRY No. 4.—As to Acts of Parliament authorizing Tolls and Rates.

Give a list of the Acts of Parliament now in force, under which you are authorized to levy tolls and rates on the lines included in your former return :—

The Belfast and Ballymena Railway Act, 1845, 8 & 9 Vict. c. 81.

The Belfast and Ballymena Extension Act, 1853, 16 & 17 Vict. c. 68.

The Ballymena and Portrush Railway Act, 1853, 16 & 17 Vict. c. 80.

NOTE.—The above now form the Belfast and Northern Counties Line (100 miles).

Lines worked by the Belfast and Northern Counties Company, viz. :—

The Londonderry and Coleraine Railway Act, 1845, 8 & 9 Vict. c. 187.

The Carrickfergus and Larne Railway Act, 1860, 23 & 24 Vict. c. 54.

INQUIRIES, Nos. 2 and 3.

Dublin, Wicklow, and Wexford Railway Company.

Sir, Secretary's Office, 48 Westland Row, Dublin, 22nd September 1865.

Referring to your letter of 31st August ult., and the duplicate forms sent therewith. I have carefully considered the matter and find that the fact of our classification of goods differing a good deal from that in use on the English railways, renders it most difficult, if not quite impossible, to fill up the forms you send. I forward you, however,—

i. The Irish classification of goods.
ii. Table of distances.
iii. Schedule of goods rates.
iv. General remarks bearing on the queries in your forms.

I think that in this way I furnish you with fuller and more satisfactory information than I could do by attempting literally to comply with your wish as to filling up the forms. If, however, you require any explanations or further information, I shall do my best to supply both, it being the wish of this company to afford the Royal Commission the fullest facilities for forming a judgment upon the railway question.

I am, &c.,
E. W. Maunsell,
Secretary.

W. Pole, Esq., Secretary, Royal Commissioners on Railways, House of Lords, Westminster, S.W.

i. Classification of Goods.

FIRST CLASS.

First class goods are to be conveyed in open waggons, and are to be loaded, conveyed, and unloaded, at the risk and expense of the owners. If not removed within twenty-fours hours after arrival per train, demurrage is to be charged for each waggon detained by them, at the rate of 3*s.* for every day, or part of a day, after the twenty-four hours, Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday excepted.

Goods in this class (except sea-weed) when sent in quantities of less than five tons are to be charged at second class rates.

* Bark to be charged at a minimum weight of three tons to each waggon. Should more than three tons be loaded in one waggon, the charge is to be made for the actual weight. Bark (loose) to be loaded and unloaded by the owners, and the waggons to be subject to demurrage, the same as in first class.

† When deals and boards (except mahogany and veneers), or iron and steel, in bars and rods, above 13 feet long, can be loaded in ordinary goods or cattle waggons, the same rate may be charged as if they were only 13 feet long. When two or more waggons are required for the conveyance of shafts, iron girders, long timber, and such like articles, they are to be charged for specially at the rate of one ton to each waggon, if the actual weight does not amount to that.

‡ Bog wood to be charged at a minimum weight of two tons to each waggon, and to be loaded and unloaded by the owners. The waggons to be subject to demurrage, the same as in first class. Should more than two tons be loaded in one waggon, the charge is to be made for the actual weight.

§ Osiers to be charged at a minimum weight of three tons to each waggon. Should more than three tons be loaded in one waggon, the charge is to be made for the actual weight.

‖ Peat to be charged at a minimum weight of two tons to each waggon, and to be loaded and unloaded by the owners. The waggons to be subject to demurrage the same as in first class. Should more than two tons be loaded in one waggon the charge is to be made for the actual weight.

* When sent in quantities of three tons and upwards, to be charged at second class rates.

† When Deals and Boards (except Mahogany and Veneers), or Iron and Steel, in rods and bars, above 13 feet long, can be loaded in ordinary Goods or Cattle Waggons, the same rate may be charged as if they were only 13 feet long. When two or more Waggons are required for the conveyance of Shafts, Iron Girders, Long Timber, and such like articles, they are to be charged for specially at the rate of one ton to each Waggon, if the actual weight does not amount to that.

‡ Mode of ascertaining the number of cubic feet in a tree or log of round Timber:—

Find the average girth in feet of the piece, which divide by 4. The square of the fourth of the girth multiplied by the actual number of feet in length will give the number of cubic feet, which, when divided by 40 (the number of cubic feet per ton) in the case of Oak, Teak, Beech, Ash, and Elm, or by 50 in all other descriptions of Timber, will give the weight in tons.

§ Turf to be charged at a minimum weight of two tons to each Waggon, and to be loaded and unloaded by the owners. The Waggons to be subject to demurrage, the same as in First Class. Should more than two tons be loaded in one Waggon, the charge is to be made for the actual weight.

‖ Twigs to be charged at a minimum weight of three tons to each Waggon. Should more than three tons be loaded in one Waggon, the charge is to be made for the actual weight.

Dublin, Wicklow, and Wexford Railway.—Inquiries Nos. 2 and 3—continued.

iv. General Remarks.

The Dublin, Wicklow, and Wexford Railway Company submits to the Royal Commission the accompanying compilation denominated "Classification of Goods," [pp. 265, 267] used generally by the railway companies in Ireland, associated in the Irish Railway Clearing House, by means of which the principles adopted in the conduct of the company's goods traffic may be best understood.

The various articles of merchandize are therein respectively classified.

The charge made for conveyance of each article is according to the class in which the article is placed; and it follows that there is a different rate of charge fixed for each of the several classes.

The ordinary lists of rates for merchandize thus classified, and table of distances from station to station, also accompany this statement, [pp. 268, 269] and these, with the following additional particulars, give the Commission, in fact, all the information on the subject that the company itself possesses.

The "minimum charge per ton for each article for the shortest distance," is shown on the lists of rates, and quantities less than a ton are charged proportionately at the same rate, subject to a minimum charge as follows:—

	s.	d.
For any distance under 25 miles	0	9
25 to 50 „	1	0
51 to 100 „	1	3
above 150 „	2	0

The rates generally cover terminal expenses and loading and unloading by the company, except on 1st class goods; and these are statedly loaded and unloaded by the owners, but the company's servants nevertheless usually assist.

The goods traffic is ordinarily transmitted at the risk of the company, with the exception of articles in 1st class, which are conveyed at the risk of the owners.

The practice of the company is to deliver daily, at the destination stations, the traffic which has been forwarded on the previous day to the company for transmission.

The loading is usually performed at the time of the delivery of the goods to the company for conveyance, and the unloading commences quickly after their arrival at the inwards station. 24 hours are, however, allowed for the unloading of 1st class goods.

Warehousing is given for 24 hours free of charge; and where the company have ample accommodation, its customers obtain storage without charge for a lengthened period.

Demurrage of waggons is subject to be charged at the rate of 3*s.* per day or part of a day, after 24 hours subsequent to arrival of train. Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday excepted. But the charge is rarely or ever made.

The service of collection and delivery is performed by an agent of the company at the following rate, but the charge is not made unless the work is actually done:—

In Dublin, up to 8 cwt., 3*d.* per cwt.
„ 8 cwt. to 1 ton, 2*s.*
In the country, 1*s.* per ton.
Minimum charge, 3*d.*, which covers 5 cwt.

The railway of this company does not form a junction with that of any other company, and several queries of the Commission are therefore inapplicable.

REGULATIONS.

1st. Live stock is to be charged by the waggon or half-waggon, according to the above rates.

2nd. The sender may load as many head in each waggon as he may think fit, but the company will, in no case, be responsible for any injury to live stock that may arise from over-loading.

3rd. The "rate per waggon" to be charged whenever the number loaded in the waggon exceeds the following, viz.:—four head of fat or full-grown cattle, five head of small cattle, ten calves (under two months old), fourteen sheep or pigs, or eighteen lambs.

4th. The "rate per half-waggon" to be charged whenever the number loaded in the waggon does not exceed the above.

5th. When only half a waggon is charged, the company to have the option of making use of the remaining half for conveying other live stock.

6th. All charges must be prepaid, and the live stock must be unloaded and removed from the company's premises immediately the waggons arrive at the place for unloading.

7th. Drivers in charge of stock will be charged half third-class fares, one being permitted to travel with each truck or half-truck.

8th. The company do not pledge themselves to the arrival of the cattle trains at any given time; neither do they hold themselves liable for any injury or damage occurring to live stock while on the Dublin, Wicklow, and Wexford Railway; and they undertake the conveyance of it only on condition that they be free from all risk and responsibility.

9th. Parties forwarding stock are requested to give the station master twenty-four hours previous notice for the supply of waggons.

Name the stations between which the highest rates for the conveyance of live stock are charged, showing the charge for each description, and the distances between the stations.

Dublin, Harcourt Street, and Enniscorthy; distance 77½ miles.
For other particulars see above.

Name the stations between which the lowest rates for the conveyance of live stock are charged, showing the charge for each description, and the distances between the stations.

Dublin, Harcourt Street, and Shankill; distance 9¾ miles.
For other particulars see above.

Is there any special charge for cattle to the Royal Agricultural Society's shows? If so, state it.

None to the shows. Any returning from the shows unsold are carried free at owner's risk.

Great Southern and Western Railway of Ireland.—Inquiry No. 5.—continued.

Places between which the highest rate of passenger fare is charged, giving the fares for each class, and the distances between the stations.

Kilkenny and Tralee, 224¼ miles.

3rd „ „	Nil.

The above-named stations and fares are quoted in accordance with the request contained in the printed heading, the greatest distance on the Great Southern and Western Railway from station to station being 224¼ miles; but owing to the long distance, the geographical position of the two towns, and the fact that they are the terminal stations of different branch lines, the actual passenger traffic is quite nominal. The average passenger traffic is for distances under 60 miles.

Places between which the lowest rate of passenger fare is charged, giving the fares for each class, and the distances between the stations.

Lucan and Hazlehatch, 3 miles.

1st class single fare	0	8
2nd „ „	0	6
3rd „ „	Nil.

The above-named stations and fares are given in accordance with the request contained in the printed heading, the shortest distance on the Great Southern and Western Railway from station to station being 3 miles. The places named being unimportant road-side stations, the actual passenger traffic is limited.

Are market tickets issued; if so, between what places, and at what proportion of the single fares?

No such tickets issued on Great Southern and Western Railway.

Give the average speeds of trains as follows:—

Average speed of mail trains, including stoppages	$30\frac{42}{65}$ per hour.
„ ordinary passenger trains, „	$24\frac{60}{205}$ „
„ parliamentary „ „	$20\frac{3}{4}$ „

Give some general information as to the nature and extent of your special excursion traffic, stating the frequency of the excursion trains, the places between which they run, the fares charged per mile for each class, the number of passengers of each class generally carried in each train, and the average speed, including stoppages.

I. The extent of the receipts for passenger excursion traffic, as also the number of special trains are both subject to considerable fluctuation, depending much on the state of the weather, and influenced by local and special attractions which from time to time arise.

II. The more important excursion trains are, as a rule, to and from the terminal stations, viz.:—

Dublin to Cork, and vice versâ.
Do. to Limerick, „
Do. to Killarney, „
Do. to intermediate stations, and vice versâ.
Cork to Limerick, and vice versâ.
Do. to Killarney, „
Do. to intermediate stations, and vice versâ.

III. The excursion return fares range at various reductions on the ordinary return fares, say from 30 to 60 per cent., according to circumstances and distances.

IV. The number of passengers carried in excursion trains are found to vary according to the number of stations booking and the distance travelled by the respective excursion trains.

1st class return from 20 to 150 passengers per train.
2nd „ „ 20 to 100 „ „
3rd „ „ 100 to 500 „ „

V. Some of the excursion trains have 1st, 2nd, and 3rd class carriages attached, but the greater number of such trains have only 1st and 3rd class carriages.

INQUIRY No. 6.—As to Rates for Parcels.

The above rates apply only to parcels, &c. conveyed on the Great Southern and Western Railway exclusively.

I. No parcels under 28 lbs. are accepted by goods trains unless they form part of other consignments, and all parcels or consignments, whether above or below 28 lbs. and sent by goods trains, are charged at the general goods tonnage rates.

II. The company's agent is allowed 2*d.* for collection and 2*d.* for delivery for each parcel, making a total of 4*d.* on each parcel, which the company pay to the agent out of the above rates charged to the public by passenger trains.

There are no important exceptions to the general parcel rates.

Is there any special charge for cattle to the Royal Agricultural Society's shows? If so, state it.

Charged the ordinary rates to cattle shows. Conveyed back free if unsold and accompanied by a certificate signed by the secretary of each agricultural show.

INQUIRY No. 9.—As to Charges at different Periods.

Give, for the lines included in your former returns, the information in the annexed table, attending to the following conditions:

The amounts are to represent the average rates charged per mile.

For goods they are to be the rates for long distances, and including terminal charges.

In the cases of railways opened since 1840 or 1850, give the rates at the time of opening, and substitute this date at the top of the column.

Line opened in August 1846, from Dublin to Carlow, 55¾ miles, and rates given below on said distance for each period.

General Remarks.

I. The rates given above for passengers, for horses, and for carriages are worked out per mile per passenger, per mile per horse, and per mile per carriage, in accordance with the printed instructions.

II. As regards oxen and sheep, the rates are given per mile per waggon, as rates per head are not charged for this description of traffic.

III. The rates for goods are given per ton for the longest distance, viz., 56 miles, being the rates struck at the opening of the Great Southern and Western Railway in August 1846, in accordance with the printed instructions. As the object of the other two columns (headed 1850 and 1865) would appear to be to arrive at a comparison of goods rates in operation at the different periods quoted, the goods rates per ton set forth in each column refer only to the distance of 56 miles.

3. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?

They vary according to circumstances.

4. If not, state the nature of the exceptions.

The exceptions are when it is found necessary to obtain the traffic at special lower rates than the ordinary tariff, but this applies principally to cargoes or large quantities.

5. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?

As a rule it is carried at owner's risk.

6. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

According to circumstances, and in respect to damage where it proceeds from circumstances beyond the control of senders.

7. Do you undertake to deliver this class of traffic within a specified time?	Lowest specific time for delivery, but generally 24 hours.
8. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?	24 hours.
9. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?	3*s.* per day after 24 hours.

(B.) In Owners' Waggons.

10. State in the following Table the charges on your own line for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement:—

Not carried in any but companies' waggons.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC IN COMPANIES' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system of junctions?	We have through rates for this class of traffic with other companies.
18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic?	Yes.
19. If not, state the exceptions?	None.

CONTRACT CHARGES IN COMPANIES' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts?	None.
If so,—
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?	None.
b. Or how otherwise?	None.
22. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?	None.

Ordinary Parcels above 112 lbs. weight.

For distance up to 21 miles, for every additional 7 lbs., 1*d.* extra.
„ over 21 „ „ 2 lbs., 1*d.* „

Van Parcels over 112 lbs., two-thirds the rate for ordinary parcels.

The van parcels are conveyed daily, and will be forwarded by the parliamentary train every morning (Sundays excepted), they are required to be taken to the Company's Parcels Office, Victoria Station, before 7 o'clock, and to the receiving houses in London and the country stations before 5 o'clock the previous evening.

All packages intended to be forwarded as van parcels at the reduced rate of charge, must be legibly marked "Van "Parcels Train," or they will be sent by the ordinary passenger trains, at the usual rate of charge for parcels.

The rates above mentioned are inclusive of booking (except at Victoria and the receiving houses), and of collection from the receiving houses, and delivery within 2½ miles of Somerset House, and at the country stations where delivery is customary, within a mile of the station.

Packed Parcels, &c.—Parcels tied together, packed in a hamper, in sacks, or otherwise packed, unless bonâ fide the property of one person, will be charged double the above rates.

Returned Empty Packages, &c.—Threepence per package (which must be prepaid) will be charged for returned empties, exclusive of collection or delivery; and the date when it was conveyed must fully be written on each package, or it will not be received. Half the ordinary parcels rates will be charged for packages containing empty bottles. The charge for collection and delivery of empty packages within the London district will be 3*d.* for collection and 4*d.* for delivery of each package—to be prepaid.

Fragile Parcels.—Parcels are conveyed at owner's risk only, unless upon payment of an additional charge of half the ordinary rates for parcels under 10*l.* value. For parcels above that value, see Special Rate hereunder.

Insurance Rate for articles comprised in the notice under Carriers' Act, exhibited at the company's stations, over and above the ordinary rate of carriage:—

For any distance not exceeding	50 miles,	for each pound sterling in value, the sum of ½*d.*
„ „	75 „	„ „ „ ¾*d.*

An additional farthing per pound sterling for every increase of distance not exceeding 50 miles, and the same for every increase of distance upon each additional 50 miles completed over and above the first 150 miles.

N.B.—When the value of the property to be insured shall exceed 250*l.*, a reduction in the above specified rates may be made by special contract.

For Milk.

	Per Imperial Gallon.	Cases containing 9 Galls and less.

Over 10 and under 25	0 0¾	0 9
Over 25 and under under 50	0 1	1 0
Above 50 miles	0 1¼	1 4

Empty cans returned free. The cans to be stamped or marked with the number of gallons.

Fish.—For any distance under 21 miles, ordinary parcels rates; for any distance over 21 miles, and for any quantity under 56 lbs., ordinary parcels rates; and for any quantity over 56 lbs., 4*s.* per cwt. Between the stations on the main line from Victoria to Chatham, both inclusive, the ordinary parcels rates.

Hat Boxes containing a single hat, 6*d.* each; packed in crates or tied together, 3*d.* each; with minimum charge of 1*s.*, irrespective of distance.

Newspapers and Unbound Periodicals to and from all Stations.

A single newspaper	1*d.*
Above 6 lbs. and not exceeding 14 lbs.	6*d.*
For every additional 7 lbs.	1*d.*

These charges include booking but not delivery, and the parcels must be open at both ends.

Every fraction of a pound weight is charged as a full pound, and every fraction of a penny as a full penny.

All parcels up to 112 lbs. will be forwarded by passenger trains, unless "per goods train" be distinctly marked upon them.

All parcels are carried under the conditions exhibited at the company's station.

Parcels intended to be conveyed by any particular train must be deposited in the company's parcels office 15 minutes before the departure of the train.

Rates for Small Packages and Parcels by Goods Trains.

The following Rates on parcels and packages, not exceeding 112 lbs. weight, include cartage to and from all places within the limits of the borough of Southwark and City of London, and delivery in the country (wherever the company have vehicles for that purpose) to distances not exceeding one mile from stations, but not collection. Beyond the limits of the Borough of Southwark and City of London, an extra charge will be made for cartage, according to distances.

3. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?

No.

4. If not, state the nature of the exceptions.

The rates quoted are in general use, but reduced rates are made for certain quantities under particular conditions and to suit the requirements of particular districts.

5. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?

Owner's risk.

6. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

By increasing the rates 20 per cent.

7. Do you undertake to deliver this class of traffic within a specified time?

No.

8. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

Twenty-four hours, Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday excepted.

9. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

3*s.* per waggon per day.

(B.) In Owners' Waggons.

10. State in the following Table the charges on your own line for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement:—

All rolling stock belongs to this company.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? — Yes, in companies' waggons.

18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic? — Yes.

19. If not, state the exceptions. — See reply 18.

CONTRACT CHARGES, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,— — No.

a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?

b. Or how otherwise?

22. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions? — No.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways? — No.

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions. — 25 per cent. off seaport points to meet competitive traffic.

4. Is the traffic of articles in this return conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise? — Company's risk, except under agreement.

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time? — According to the terms of our Time Tables.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic? — Twenty-four hours.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge? — Forty-eight hours.

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired? —
1st class, 3*s.* (per day or part of a day) per waggon.
2nd ,, 6*d.* per ton per week.
3rd ,, 9*d.* ,, ,,
4th ,, 1*s.* ,, ,,
5th ,, 1*s.* 6*d.* ,, ,,
6th ,, 2*s.* ,, ,,

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons? — 3*s.* per waggon per day.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

Midland Great Western Railway of Ireland.—Inquiry No. 2.—continued.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return? — Yes.

13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given? — Each company delivers at the Junction with the other company; a load less than two tons is transhipped; a waggon with more than two tons is sent through to destination of its contents.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts. If so,— — No.

a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried? — No.

b. Or how otherwise? — No.

16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?

17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions. — Yes.

18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply. — Yes.

19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owner's waggons? If so, state the particulars. — No.

The Grand Canal Company of Ireland.

—	—	Acts of the Irish Parliament.
A.D. 1715.	2 Geo. I. c. 12 - -	Certain persons therein named as undertakers were empowered at their proper cost and charges to make the river Shannon navigable from Limerick to Carrick-drumrusk, with such powers as to valuations, juries, &c., &c., as in said Act particularized, and certain persons or any seven of them were appointed Commissioners to adjust difficulties between these undertakers and the owners of lands. And certain persons were also authorized to make other rivers therein mentioned navigable and to levy tolls and fares, with power to appoint deputies and agents under hand and seal.
1721.	8 Geo. I. c. 6 - -	The quorum of Commissioners reduced to five, and the appointments of deputies and agents to be signed by five Justices of the Peace or Members of Parliament, and a memorial thereof to be entered in the Registry Office.
1729.	3 Geo. II. c. 3 - -	The undertakers were superseded by the appointment of Commissioners for exercising the powers in said former Acts mentioned, and a public fund (viz., certain tillage duties) was thereby appointed and set apart for carrying on the works.
1749.	23 Geo. II. c. 5 - -	The Commissioners in said 2 Geo. I., named, to have the same powers as before for adjusting differences.
1751.	25 Geo. II. c. 10 - -	The Commissioners named in 3 Geo. II. were erected into a body corporate or Board of Inland Navigation (as it was usually called) with a seal and name, and the same powers, &c. as the undertakers and Commissioners in the former Acts mentioned, and to lay out roads, from coal or other mines to the canal, and to make rivers navigable and canals between rivers; the said corporation for promoting inland navigation to have powers to appoint under their seal three of their members to treat for lands to be made use of for the navigations.
1755.	29 Geo. II. c. 10 - -	Empowers the Board of Inland Navigation to appoint persons to treat with the owners of lands and agree with them.
1772.	11 & 12 Geo. III. c. 4 -	The public fund created by 3 Geo. III. continued; and as the method of carrying on inland navigations altogether at the expense of the public was found inconvenient and attended with delay, private subscribers were to be encouraged to undertake such works at their own expense. The Board of Inland Navigation were empowered to transfer the property of a navigation with its soil, banks, houses, tolls, duties, and all other matters appertaining thereunto unto any private company of undertakers willing to carry on such a work.
	11 & 12 Geo. III. c. 25 -	The undertakers for carrying on inland canals or navigations were empowered to take leases for canal purposes of lands and of strips of ground and on red bogs 20 perches on each side of the edge of the canal.
	11 & 12 Geo. III. c. 31 -	Certain subscribers were incorporated by the name of the company of Undertakers of the Grand Canal to have perpetual succession and a common seal for carrying on and completing a canal from Dublin to the Shannon, and from such canal to the Barrow, and from Dublin to the Liffey, together with the navigation of the Barrow from its sources to Athy, and such off branches as might be necessary, with such powers as were vested in the Board of Inland Navigation by the former Acts, and to be capable in law to purchase and take lands, &c. and to have power by themselves and their agents, &c. to carry on and complete the canal; and to levy tolls thereon not exceeding 3*d.* per ton per mile for goods and 2*d.* per mile for passengers.
1789.	29 Geo. III. c. 39 -	The company incorporated by 11 & 12 Geo. III. c. 31 are regulated as to the election of directors and to the holding of general meetings, &c.
		Acts of the Parliament of the United Kingdom.
1845.	8 & 9 Vict. c. 28 -	Canal companies empowered to vary their tolls.
	8 & 9 Vict. c. 42 -	Canal companies empowered to become carriers of goods.
1848.	11 & 12 Vict. c. 124 -	For better carrying on the affairs of the Grand Canal Company, and the company's name changed.

Over 80 - -	0 8	1 2	1 6	1 8	¾d. „ „

The above rates include collection or delivery in Dublin.

Parcels exceeding 56 lbs. in weight are forwarded by passenger train, at 25 per cent. over goods rates when directed "Van Parcels," and delivered at the respective stations 30 minutes before the advertised time of starting.

Small parcels.—The following reduced rates are now charged for the carriage of parcels not exceeding 28 lbs. in weight and 5*l.* in value, subject to the under-mentioned conditions; for 50 miles and under, 6*d.*; over 50 miles and under 80, 9*d.*; over 80 miles, 1*s.*

The above rates are from station to station only, and do not include collection or delivery. The charges must be paid at the forwarding station. The parcels must be legibly endorsed "parcel under 5*l.* in value." They must be delivered at the forwarding station, half an hour before the advertised time of departure of the train, and will be subject to a charge of 1*d.* per day for storage, if not taken away by the owner within 24 hours after arrival. In cases of neglect of any of these conditions the parcels will be forwarded at the ordinary rates.

Maximum fares allowed by Act of Parliament.

Sect. 182.—That the maximum rate of charge to be made by the company for the conveyance of passengers upon the said railway, including the tolls for the use of the railway, and of carriages, and for locomotive power, and for every other expense incidental to such conveyance, shall not exceed the following sums :—

For every passenger conveyed in a first class carriage for a less distance than two miles, the sum of 4*d.*; and for a distance of or exceeding two miles, 8*d.*

For every passenger conveyed in a second-class carriage for a less distance than two miles, the sum of 3*d.*; and for a distance of or exceeding two miles, 6*d.*

For every passenger conveyed in a third-class carriage for a less distance than two miles, the sum of 2*d.*; and for a distance of or exceeding two miles, the sum of 4*d.*

Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the company, if they think fit, to take uniform charges upon the whole or any part of the railway for the conveyance of passengers, but in such case the maximum rate of charge for the conveyance upon the whole or any part of the railway shall not exceed the sum of 6*d.* for every passenger conveyed in a first-class carriage, the sum of 4*d.* for every passenger conveyed in a second-class carriage, and the sum of 3*d.* for every passenger conveyed in a third-class carriage.

The extension fares are 50 per cent. of the above in addition.

The return fares per mile in this table were given by the company on the mileage of the double journey; they have been altered to the single journey mileage to make them conform to those of the majority of the returns.

FOR ARTICLES CARRIED FROM STATION TO STATION ONLY, OR FROM JUNCTION TO JUNCTION ONLY, ON ALL YOUR LINES.

(A.) In Companies' Waggons, when loaded and unloaded by the Owners.

2. State in the following Table the charges on your lines for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement :—

	(a.)			(b.)		(c.)		(d.)
Name of Article.	What is the Minimum Charge per Ton for each Article for the shortest Distance?	What is the Minimum Load of each Article below which you refuse to take it at these Rates?	What is the Distance to which this Charge is applicable?	What is the Charge per Ton per Mile when this Distance is exceeded, and up to 50 miles?	What is your Scale of Charges according to Distance for Distances beyond 50 Miles?	What is the Charge per Ton for Terminal or Station Accommodation?	Is it included in the foregoing Charges?	What is the Charge for Loading and Unloading when done by the Company?	Is it in addition to the foregoing Charges?
For the whole of the articles included in the Mineral Class of the Clearing House classification, and also including Cannel, Coal, Coke, Culm, and Materials for Road Repairs.	2s.	5 tons.	8 miles.	1d. per mile.	No such distances.	According to the distance conveyed; for 30 miles we charge 9d. terminal at each end.	Additional.	Not done by the company.	Nil.

3. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?	Yes, as a general rule, but with occasional exceptions.
4. If not, state the nature of the exceptions?	When the route per rail is circuitous we give the public the advantage, and charge only for the direct distance.
5. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?	Nominally, but there is little or no risk.
6. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition?	Nil.
7. Do you undertake to deliver this class of traffic within a specified time?	Within 48 hours, unless otherwise arranged.
8. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?	24 hours.
9. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?	None in practice; nominally 3s. per day per waggon.

(B.) In Owners' Waggons.

10. State, in the following Table, the charges on your own line for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement :—

There are no owners' waggons on this company's line.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions?	Yes.
18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic?	Yes.
19. If not, state the exceptions?
20. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?	Through rates are given.

The Dublin and Drogheda Railway.—Inquiry No. 1.—continued.

CONTRACT CHARGES, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,— None.

a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried? Nil.

b. Or how otherwise? Nil.

22. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions? Occasionally for large quantities conditioned to suit economy of haulage low rates are named.

N.B.—Horses and carriages are not booked to or from the stations to which no rates are mentioned.

Entire horses are charged each as half a horse-box.

Hunting.—The horses of gentlemen hunting will, during the season, be conveyed at a one and a half fare for the double journey, when performed the same day. The charges must in all cases be pre-paid, or boxes cannot be ensured for the return journey.

The rates for horses and dogs mentioned are charged when the sender signs a note holding the company free from risk, otherwise an addition of 20 per cent. will be made to the above rates.

Horses and carriages may be conveyed by goods trains, at two-thirds of the above rates, but only when [hiatus].

Regulations for the Conveyance of Live Stock.

First.—The sender may load as many in each waggon as he may think fit, but the company will not be responsible for any injury to live stock that may arise from overloading.

Second.—No less charge than half-a-waggon rate is to be made for each waggon.

Third.—The rate per half-waggon is to be charged for four head of full-grown cattle; six head of small cattle; fifteen calves, under two months old; fifteen sheep or bacon pigs; and twenty small pork pigs or lambs. All over the above numbers in each waggon to be charged at the full waggon rate.

Fourth.—When half a waggon only is charged, the company may use the other half for conveying the live stock of another owner.

Fifth.—Horses may be loaded in waggons at a reduced charge of 1½*d.* per head per mile, no less charge than for five, on owner signing risk note, and declaring that the horses do not exceed the value of 10*l.* each, minimum charge of 15*s.* per waggon. Horses of a greater value will be taken only at the full ordinary rate, as by passenger trains.

Sixth.—Rams, sheep, calves, or pigs, under two months old are to be charged, per goods or cattle trains only, ½*d.* per mile, per head; minimum charge 2*s.*

Seventh.—All charges must be prepaid.

Eighth.—Drovers in charge of not less than one whole waggon of stock, and travelling in the same train with them, are to be charged half third-class fares; if in charge of less than one waggon of stock full fare will be charged according to class.

The station master at the loading station will in all cases be held responsible for the proper charges. The station master at the unloading station is to check off the numbers of waggons entered on the ticket, endorse the time of arrival at the station, see that the authorized numbers are allowed for half waggons, the proper rates charged, and report discrepancies or irregularities to the manager immediately.

NORTH LONDON RAILWAY.

INQUIRY No. 1.—Questions in regard to Railway Charges.

1. Give a list of the lines to which this return refers, and state their respective lengths.

The North London Railway, which commences by a junction with the London and North-western Railway at Chalk Farm (Camden), connects with the Great Northern and Midland Railways at St. Pancras, and terminates with the East and West India Docks at Poplar, connecting by a branch with the London and Blackwall Railway near Bow, by means of which the goods traffic of the above companies is conveyed to their terminal stations at Haydon Square and Mint Street; and passenger trains are worked every 15 minutes to and from the London and Blackwall Company's station at Fenchurch Street, City.

The company also works (for the Great Eastern Company) a branch line from Hackney Wick to Stratford, there connecting their line with the Great Eastern system and the Victoria Docks; also for the London and North-western Company the Hampstead Junction line between Camden Road and Willesden Junctions, at which latter point a connexion is formed by means of the West London Railway with the Great Western and also the London and Brighton and other railways south of the Thames; also with the North and South-western Junction Railway between Willesden Junction and Kew Bridge, at which point it connects with the London and South-western Railway, by which company the trains are taken forward to Richmond, Twickenham, and Kingston-on-Thames. The length of the line from Chalk Farm to Poplar is 8¼ miles, and from Bow to the Blackwall Railway half a mile.

FOR ARTICLES CARRIED FROM STATION TO STATION ONLY, OR FROM JUNCTION TO JUNCTION ONLY, ON ALL YOUR LINES.

(A.) In Companies' Waggons, when loaded and unloaded by the Owners.

2. State in the following Table the charges on your lines for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement :—

Name of Article.	(a.) What is the Minimum Charge per Ton for each Article for the shortest Distance?	(a.) What is the Minimum Load of each Article below which you refuse to take it at these Rates?	(b.) What is the Distance to which this Charge is applicable?	(b.) What is the Charge per Ton per Mile when this Distance is exceeded, and up to 50 Miles?	(b.) What is your Scale of Charges according to Distance for Distances beyond 50 Miles?	(c.) What is the Charge per Ton for Terminal or Station Accommodation?	(c.) It is included in the foregoing Charges?	(d.) What is the Charge for Loading and Unloading when done by the Company?	(d.) Is it in addition to the foregoing Charges?
For the whole of the articles included in the Mineral Class of the Clearing House Classification, and also including Chanel, Coal, Coke, Culm, and Materials for Road Repairs. Appendix C1.	As regards goods traffic this line is used only as a connecting link between the larger systems of railway or to and from terminal stations the property of other companies, and any charge is included by the sending and receiving companies in the through rates, the North London Company receiving thereout a sum for toll and working expenses not calculated on mileage but varying according to the through charges, the minimum being 2*s.* 6*d.* per ton for the entire length of line and haulage to destination beyond the limits of the company's lines; the minimum charge, 3*d.* per ton for coal and 6*d.* per ton for general goods for a distance of one mile in foreign waggons.

See answer to Question No. 2.

4. If not, state the nature of the exceptions.

5. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?

The coal traffic is conveyed at owner's risk, sender's loading, and consignee's discharging. For merchandise traffic, see remarks in answer to Question No. 2.

6. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

7. Do you undertake to deliver this class of traffic within a specified time?

The company do not deliver.

8. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

Twenty-four hours for loading, and twenty-four hours for discharging.

9. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

3*s.* per waggon per diem.

North London Railway.—Inquiry No. 1.—continued.

(B.) In Owners' Waggons;

Name of Article.	(a.) What is the Minimum Charge per Ton for each Article for the shortest Distance?	(a.) What is the Minimum Load of each Article below which you refuse to take it at these Rates?	(a.) What is the Distance to which this Charge is applicable?	(b.) What is the Charge per Ton per Mile when this Distance is exceeded, and up to 50 Miles?	(b.) What is your Scale of Charges according to Distance for Distances beyond 50 Miles?	(c.) What is the Charge per Ton for Terminal or Station Accommodation?	(c.) Is it included in the foregoing Charges?
For the whole of the articles included in the Mineral Class of the Clearing House Classification, and also including Cannel Coal, Coke, Culm, and Materials for Road Repairs. Appendix CP.	On inland coal there is a uniform rate of 1*s.* per ton, excepting to Poplar for transfer to barges, on which the charge is 9*d.* per ton. The answer to Question No. 2 refers also to merchandise traffic under this head.

Extract from the North London Company's Letter, 24th July 1866.

"I have now to inform you that there are eight depôts for reception of coal, constructed originally by the Northumberland and Durham Coal Company, and subsequently purchased by this company. Each depôt is let to a tenant who engages to take annually the quantity of coal the depôt is estimated to have accommodation for, or in default of taking the full quantity to pay the charges in respect of the full amount. The coal may be either inland or seaborne, there being no stipulation as to the places or collieries from which it is to be obtained. The inland coal is received either at Camden, the junction of the London and North-western, or at St. Pancras, the junction of the Midland and Great Northern Companies' lines. The seaborne coal is received at the North London Company's dock at Poplar. The charge for carriages is in either case 1*s.* per ton, a further charge of 2*d.* per ton being made for wharfage in the case of inland coal, the seaborne coal being subjected to dock dues of the same amount."

10*d*. Do the charges include returning empty waggons? — No.

11. Are the above charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways? — See answer to Question No. 2.

12. If not, state the nature of the exceptions.

13. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise? — The coal traffic is conveyed at owner's risk, senders loading, and consignees discharging. For merchandise traffic, see remarks in answer to Question No. 2.

14. Do you undertake to convey this class of traffic within a specified time? — No.

15. And to return the empty waggons within a specified time? — No.

And if so, in what time?

16. Do you allow demurrage on owners' waggons when not returned within the specified time? — No.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? — Yes.

18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic? — Junctions are not considered as stations.

19. If not, state the exceptions.

20. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given? — As a general rule through rates and arrangements. In the few exceptional cases where this is not done the traffic is conveyed forward at local charges.

CONTRACT CHARGES, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,— — There is no scale of charges for contracts. The company is in some instances under agreement with the occupiers of coal depôts for conveyance of coal, and in such cases the rate is the same to all parties guaranteeing an annual traffic beyond a certain tonnage amount.

a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?

b. Or how otherwise?

22. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions? — No.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions?

Yes, where permitted. Obstructions to this are specially brought before the committee by the secretary.

18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic?

Not always.

19. If not, state the exceptions?

When accommodation not suitable for loading or unloading of goods.

20. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

The goods are re-booked at local rates, and waggons sent forward under Railway Clearing House regulations.

CONTRACT CHARGES, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?

No.

22. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?

Special rates are made upon certain staple articles of transit, and on certain quantities of same.

Newry and Armagh Railway.—Inquiry No. 2.—continued.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?	They are not.
3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions?	Exceptions are caused by other companies competing for the traffic to stations on this line.
4. Is the traffic of articles in this return conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?	Conveyed at railway company's risk, except in special cases.
5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.	When carried by special agreement.
6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time?	Yes, as a general rule.
7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?	24 hours.
8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?	24 hours.
9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?	According to class and description of goods.
10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?	3*s.* per day (24 hours).

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	Yes. In return the Ulster (our neighbouring company) do not give this facility to stations on this line (Newry and Armagh), and the Dublin and Belfast company to our Newry station only.
12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?	Yes, on this line.
13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.
14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?	Receiving companies forward to nearest station on their line to destination, charging (if to pay) the sending company's charge forward as paid in, and accounting to that company for same.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—	No.
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?
16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?	Yes.
17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	Yes.
18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.	Yes.

INQUIRY No. 3.—Questions in regard to Railway Charges.

1. State in the following Table the charges for the conveyance of the various articles named, between Stations on your own lines, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement, including collection and delivery. 2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways? — They are not.

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions. — Exceptions are caused by other companies competing for the traffic to stations on this line.

4. Is the traffic of these articles carried at the company's risk (excepting the articles otherwise specified)? — Conveyed at railway company's risk except in special cases.

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition. — When carried by special contract.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time. — Yes, as a general rule,

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic? — 24 hours.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge? — 24 hours.

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired? — According to class and description of goods.

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons? — 3*s.* per day (24 hours).

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions. — Yes, but the same facilities for return traffic is not accorded to this line by the Dublin and Belfast Junction and Ulster Railway Companies.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return? — Yes; on this line.

13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given? — Receiving companies forward to nearest station to destination on their lines, charging (if to pay) the sending company's charges forward as paid on and accounting to that company for same.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,— — No.

a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?

b. Or how otherwise?

16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions? — Yes.

17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions. — Yes.

18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply. — Yes.

Cork and Bandon Railway.—Inquiry No. 1.—continued.

3. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?
4. If not, state the nature of the exceptions.

Yes; with the following exceptions:

The rates between Cork and Kinsale for 24 miles are the same as those between Cork and Bandon for 20 miles, on which distance the rates were originally struck.

5. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?
6. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

Yes (owner's risk).

7. Do you undertake to deliver this class of traffic within a specified time?

Yes, but at the stations only.

8. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

24 hours.

9. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

Our regulations allow us to charge 3*s.* per day or part of a day.

(B.) In Owners' Waggons.

10. State, in the following table, the charges on your own line for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement:—

This and following questions do not apply to this Railway.

Dublin and Belfast Junction Railway.—Inquiry No. 1.—continued.

3. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?	Generally they are.
4. If not, state the nature of the exceptions?	When there are two routes the public have the advantage of being charged for the shortest.
5. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?	Nominally at owner's risk, but there is little risk in carrying this class of traffic.
6. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition?	Nil.
7. Do you undertake to deliver this class of traffic within a specified time?	Within 48 hours, unless there is some arrangement to suit circumstances.
8. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?	One day for loading, two days for unloading.
9. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?	3*s.* per day is the charge, but it is seldom enforced.

(B.) In Owners' Waggons.

10. State, in the following Table, the charge on your own line for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement.

No traffic in owners' waggons.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other Railway Companies connected with your system by junctions?	Yes.
18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic?	Yes.
19. If not, state the exceptions?
20. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given.	The local rates are charged, and the waggons allowed to go through.

CONTRACT CHARGES, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—	No.
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?
22. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?	For large quantities of goods arrangements are at times made to take them at lower rates.

Dublin and Meath Railway.—Inquiry No. 1.—continued.

3. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of Railways?	Yes; as nearly as possible.
4. If not, state the nature of the exceptions?	Coals are carried in most cases at very little beyond 1*d.* a mile a ton.
5. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?	At the owner's risk.
6. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition?	No departure.
7. Do you undertake to deliver this class of traffic within a specified time?	No specific understanding, but as a rule we deliver nearly with as great regularity as if ordinary goods.
8. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?	24 hours; but a much longer space is allowed in practice.
9. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?	3*s.* a day; but in no case exacted up to this date.

(B.) In Owners' Waggons.

10. State, in the following table, the charges on your own line for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement:—

No traffic carried in owners' waggons.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions?	Yes.
18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic?	No.
19. If not, state the exceptions?
20. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies when through charges are not given?

CONTRACT CHARGES, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—	On coal.
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?
22. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?

GENERAL REMARKS.

The districts traversed by these railways are almost exclusively agricultural. There is very little manufacture, and very little mineral traffic.

3. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways? — Yes, as near as may be.

4. If not, state the nature of the exceptions?

5. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise? — At owner's risk, except in the case of manufactured salt.

6. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition?

7. Do you undertake to deliver this class of traffic within a specified time? — We undertake to convey it in the railway in reasonable time, but not to collect or deliver it to or from the station.

8. What time is allowed at the station for loading and unloading this class of traffic? — No limit is, in practice, made.

9. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons? — We have never as yet charged demurrage.

(B.) IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

10. State in the following Table, the charges on your own line for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement:—
All goods are conveyed in waggons belonging to the railway company.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? — Yes.

18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic? — All our junctions with other lines are situate at stations.

19. If not, state the exceptions.

20. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

CONTRACT CHARGES, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,— — No.

a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?

b. Or how otherwise?

22. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions? — No.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

The rates given do not apply uniformly between all stations on this line, but are modified to suit the exigencies of the traffic.

4. Is the traffic of articles in this return conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

At owner's risk.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time?

The Company do not undertake to deliver the traffic within a specified time, but use all proper diligence in the conveyance of it.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic?

The traffic is usually loaded and unloaded by the Company. If unloaded by consignees the trucks must be discharged within 24 hours after advice of their arrival.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge?

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?

None charged.

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons?

3*s.* per day.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	Yes, with all companies.
12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?	Yes.
13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.	See reply to question 12.
14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?	If traffic is delivered to this Company for a station with which there are no through rates it is invoiced to the nearest point to that station and thence charged forward.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—	No.
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?	See reply above.
b. Or how otherwise?
16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?	No.
17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	No; all through rates are noted by all competing routes at the same figures. For instance, the rates from Brecon to Sheffield are noted viâ Hereford, Salop, and Crewe, Hereford, Salop, and Chester, Hereford and Worcester; Three Cocks, Llanidloes, and Whitechurch, and Three Cocks, Llanidloes, and Oswestry.
18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.	See reply to question 17.
19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owner's waggons? If so, state the particulars.	Timber is sometimes loaded in return coal waggons; the other traffic is usually loaded in company's waggons.

General Remarks.

The line is not at present opened for continuous traffic for more than 49 miles between any two points, and the questions as to rates for upwards of 50 miles cannot therefore be answered.

For loading and unloading timber a charge of 2*s.* 6*d.* per ton (1*s.* 3*d.* at each end) is made in addition to the charges given in the foregoing return.

INQUIRY No. 6.—As to Rates for Parcels.

Give, in reference to the lines included in your former returns, the general rates charged for parcel traffic, both by passenger and goods trains, according to weight and distance.

Also add particulars of any important exceptions made to these general rules.

The following will give all particulars.

The rates named apply to our local as well as to foreign traffic.

Parcels and other Traffic by Passenger Trains.

The following arrangements will come into operation on receipt.

Rates for the carriage of parcels between stations on the above lines and between these stations and those on the London and North-western and Great Western Railways.

Commercial travellers may be allowed to make one payment to free their luggage for the day to the farthest station upon the Companies' lines they propose to visit.

New Railway Carriages.

New railway carriages on their own wheels 6*d.* per carriage per mile. No less charge than 7*s.* 6*d.* to be made.

Invalid or Family Carriages.

When a family carriage is reserved, the charge to be not less than for four 1st class and four 2nd class passengers. When a carriage, having only one invalid compartment reserved, is used, the charge to be not less than four 1st class passengers.

PARCELS.

For Insurance.

The following regulations to be observed :—In pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the first year of the reign of His Majesty King William IV., cap. 68, entitled, "An Act for the more Effectual Protection of Mail Contractors Stage Coach Proprietors, and other Common Carriers for hire, against the loss of or injury to Parcels or Packages delivered to them for conveyance or custody, the value and contents of which shall not be declared to them by the owners thereof.

That for any package or passengers' luggage containing "Gold or silver coin of this realm, or of any foreign State, or any gold or silver in a manufactured or unmanufactured state, or any precious stones, jewellery, watches, clocks, or time-pieces of any description, trinkets, bills notes of the governor and company of the banks of England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, or of any other bank in Great Britain or Ireland; orders, notes, or securities for payment of money, English or foreign, stamps, maps, writings, title deeds, paintings, engravings, pictures, gold or silver plate, or plated articles, glass, china, silk, in a manufactured or unmanufactured state, and whether wrought up or not wrought up with other materials, furs or lace, or any of them," to a greater amount in value than ten pounds, the increased rates of charge, over and above the common and ordinary rates of charge for carriage, are as follows :—

For any distance not exceeding	For each pound sterling in value the sum of
50 miles	One halfpenny.
75 miles	Three farthings.
100 miles	One penny.
150 miles	Three halfpence.

An additional farthing per pound sterling for every increase of distance not exceeding 50 miles, and the same for every increase of distance upon each additional 50 miles completed, over and above the first 150 miles.

When the value of the property to be insured shall exceed 250*l.*, a reduction in the above specified rates may be made by special contract.

The conveyance by passenger trains of aquafortis, gunpowder, oil of vitriol, lucifer matches, or any other goods, which, in the judgment of the Companies, may be considered dangerous, is peremptorily forbidden; and any person sending or causing to be sent, any such article or articles, is liable to a penalty of 20*l.*, which will be sued for under the powers of the Companies' Acts.

When a parcel is insured, both the insurance and the carriage must be prepaid.

Carriage of Newspapers.

For the conveyance from London of newspapers and periodicals published at intervals not exceeding seven days, the following rates will be charged, viz :—

One newspaper or other periodical daily	21*s.* 0*d.* per annum.
For each additional newspaper enclosed in the same parcel	10*s.* 6*d.* ,,

For six months or any shorter period, half the above rates will be charged, and for any period between six and twelve months, the same charge will be made as for a year. These rates must be paid in advance.

Parcels containing papers and periodicals, published at intervals not exceeding seven days, will be charged half the ordinary parcel rates between station and station, but no collection or delivery will be paid for or performed by the Company, nor a less amount than 4*d.* charged for a single parcel. Prepayment of these parcels is optional.

Carriage of Provincial Newspapers.

For the conveyance of single provincial newspapers, irrespective of distance.

This scale applies to foreign traffic.

For the conveyance of single provincial newspapers on the Brecon and Merthyr and Hereford, Hay, and Brecon railways the following rates shall be charged, viz. :—10*s.* 6*d.* per paper per annum; 5*s.* 6*d.* for six months; and 3*s.* for three months. The distance to be restricted to 50 miles from the station from which they are despatched.

Where two or more newspapers are forwarded under one cover, the rate will be one-half the above scale for each additional paper.

The charges in all cases to be prepaid.

INQUIRY No. 6.—As to Rates for Parcels.

Give, in reference to the lines included in your former returns, the general rates charged for parcel traffic, both by passenger and goods trains, according to weight and distance.

Also add particulars of any important exceptions made to these general rates.

Scarcely any parcel traffic; that carried is at about 15*s.* per ton.

INQUIRY No. 9.—As to Charges at different Periods.

Give, for the lines included in your former Return, the information in the annexed table, attending to the following conditions:—

The amounts are to represent the average rates charged per mile.

For goods they are to be the rates for long distances, and including terminal charges.

In the cases of railways opened since 1840 or 1850, give the rates at the time of opening, and substitute this date at the top of the column.

3. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways? — Yes.

4. If not, state the nature of the exceptions.

5. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise? — At owner's risk only.

6. If not, state in what respect you depart from this condition.

7. Do you undertake to deliver this class of traffic within a specified time? — No.

8. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic? — 12 working hours.

9. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons? — 2*s.* per day.

(B.) In Owners' Waggons.

10. State in the following Table, the charges on your own line for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement:—

Name of Article.	(a.) What is the Minimum Charge per Ton for each Article for the shortest Distance?	(a.) What is the Minimum Load of each Article below which you refuse to take it at these Rates?	(a.) What is the Distance to which this Charge is applicable?	(b.) What is the Charge per Ton per Mile when this Distance is exceeded, and up to 50 Miles?	(b.) What is your Scale of Charges according to Distance for Distances beyond 50 Miles?	(c.) What is the Charge per Ton for Terminal or Station Accommodation?	(c.) Is it included in the foregoing Charges.
Bricks, common	See General Remarks.
Coal	1½*d.* per ton per mile, any weight.

General Remarks.

Owners' waggons are only used in two instances, in both cases for distances of about two miles only, to carry coal from collieries to the port of shipment, and the charge made is 1½*d.* per ton per mile for any weight per waggon, the owner finding engine power as well as waggons.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? — Yes.

18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic? — Yes.

19. If not, state the exceptions?

20. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given. — Every facility is given by rebooking and where necessary transferring the goods immediately on their arrival at junctions.

CONTRACT CHARGES, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,— — No.

a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?

b. Or how otherwise?

NORTH & SOUTH WESTERN JUNCTION RAILWAY.

INQUIRY, No. 1.—Questions in regard to Railway Charges.

1. Give a list of the lines to which this return refers, and state their respective lengths.

The North and South Western Junction Railway which commences by a junction with the London and North Western at Willesden, terminates by two junctions with the London and South Western Railway at Kew, and has a branch from Acton, which terminates at Hammersmith.

There is also a branch between Willesden and Harlesden, connecting this line with the Hampstead Junction Railway.

The length of the line from Willesden to Kew is 3 miles 7 chains, and from Acton to Hammersmith 1 mile.

FOR ARTICLES CARRIED FROM STATION TO STATION ONLY, OR FROM JUNCTION TO JUNCTION ONLY, ON ALL YOUR LINES.

(A.) In Companies' Waggons, when loaded and unloaded by the Owners.

2. State in the following Table the charges on your lines for the conveyance of the various articles named, in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement.

As regards goods and mineral traffic, this line is used only as a connecting link between the larger systems of railways, and any charge is included by the sending and receiving companies in their through rates; the goods and mineral traffic being worked partly by the London and South Western, and partly by the North London company, and the passenger traffic by the North London Company; the North and South Western Junction Company receive a sum for toll and use of sidings; 9*d.* per ton general goods, and 4*d.* minerals.

(B.) In Owners' Waggons.

10. State in the following Table, the charges on your own line for the conveyance of the various articles named in tons of 2,240 lbs., or the equivalent measurement:—

The answer to question No. 2 refers also to the merchandize traffic under this head.

On inland coal there is a uniform rate of 6*d.* per ton.

10*d.* Do the charges include returning empty waggons?	Yes.
11. Are the above charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways? 12. If not, state the nature of the exceptions.	See answer to question No. 2.
13. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at the owner's risk, or otherwise?
14. Do you undertake to convey this class of traffic, within a specified time?	The North and South Western Junction Company do not convey.
15. And to return the empty waggons within a specified time? And if so, in what time?
16. Do you allow demurrage on owners' waggons when not returned within the specified time?	No.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions?
18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic? 19. If not, state the exceptions.	Junctions are not considered as stations.
20. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

CONTRACT CHARGES, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,— a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried? b. Or how otherwise?	No.
22. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?	No.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

North and South-western Junction Railway.—Inquiry No. 2.—continued.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?
13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

Junctions are not considered as stations.

14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?

See answer to question No. 2, Inquiry No. 1.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?

No.

16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?

No.

17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

Yes.

18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.

The Taff Vale Railway is not a "passenger railway" within the meaning of the Act of Parliament.

Places between which the highest rate of passenger fare is charged, giving the fares for each class and the distances between the stations.

All our passenger fares are uniform.

Places between which the lowest rate of passenger fare is charged, giving the fares for each class and the distances between the stations.

All our passenger fares are uniform.

Are market tickets issued? If so, between what places, and at what proportion of the single fares?

None issued.

Give the average speeds of trains as follows:—

Average speed of express trains, including stoppages - - - - ——

„ ordinary passenger trains „ - - - - 25 miles per hour.

„ parliamentary „ „ - - - - ——

Give some general information as to the nature and extent of your special excursion traffic, stating the frequency of the excursion trains; the places between which they run; the fares charged per mile for each class; the number of passengers of each class generally carried in each train; and the average speed, including stoppages.

We seldom run excursion trains specially, but mostly meet parties who have some special object by allowing them to travel the to and fro journey at a single fare or a fare and a half, as the case may be.

Last summer we ran a lot of school children from Merthyr to Llantrissant and back at 6*d.* a head.

We also once ran a special train for a British school committee, who paid us 50*l.* for the train, and issued their own tickets.

The speed of these trains is the same as our ordinary passenger trains.

INQUIRY No. 6.—As to Rates for Parcels.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways? — Yes.

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

4. Is the traffic of articles in this return conveyed at the owner's risk or otherwise? — All at company's risk.

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time? — No.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic? — One clear day.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge? — No fixed period; seldom or ever make any charge for temporary accommodation.

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons? — Three shillings per day.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions and give an instance of each class of exceptions. — Yes.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return? — The one junction of this company is so considered.

13. If not, state the exceptions and give an instance of each class of exception.

14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies when through charges are not given? — All traffic with other lines carried at through rates.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,— — None.

a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment or on the quantity carried?

b. Or how otherwise?

Vale of Clwyd Railway.—Inquiry No. 2.—continued.

16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions? — None.

17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connection with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.

Where we have two routes the traffic is sent as consigned, the shortest route ruling the rates.

19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owner's waggons? If so, state the particulars. — No.

General Remarks.

The length of this line is only 10 miles, and the articles produced in the district (agricultural) are very few, the traffic being almost entirely imports. These again are all carried at through rates, and the returns of other companies, the London and North Western for instance, whose rates this company adopt generally, will give all the required information. We have, nevertheless, given the rates and charges of the articles we are constantly carrying in connection with other companies.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways? — Yes.

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

4. Is the traffic of these articles carried at the company's risk (excepting the articles otherwise specified)? — Yes.

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition.

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time? — No.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic? — One clear day.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge? — No fixed period.

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired? — As per agreement.

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons? — Three shillings per day.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

Vale of Clwyd Railway.—Inquiry No. 3.—continued.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return?	The one junction of this company is so considered.
13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.
14. What arrangements are made for the interchange of traffic with other companies, when through charges are not given?	All traffic with other lines carried at through rates.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,	None.
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise?
16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions?	None.
17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.	Where we have two routes the traffic is sent as consigned, the shortest route ruling the rates.
18. Do the mileage rates apply to the shortest railway route? If not, state to what distance they apply.
19. Are any articles in this class ever carried in owner's waggons? If so, state the particulars.	No.

GENERAL REMARKS.

The length of this line is only 10 miles, and the articles produced in the district (agricultural) are very few, the traffic being almost entirely imports. These again are all carried at through rates, and the returns of other companies, the London and North Western, for instance, whose rates this company adopt generally, will give all the required information. We have, nevertheless, given the rates and charges of the articles we are constantly carrying in connection with other companies.

INQUIRY No. 4.—As to Acts of Parliament authorizing Tolls and Rates.

Give a list of the Acts of Parliament now in force, under which you are authorized to levy tolls and rates on the lines included in your former return.

19 & 20 Vict. c. 45 (1856); 25 & 26 Vict. c. 93 (1862).

INQUIRY No. 5.—As to Passenger Fares.

Give the following information in reference to lines included in your former returns:—

* The return fares per mile in this Table were given by the company on the mileage of the double journey; they have been altered to the single journey mileage to make them conform to those of the majority of the returns.

Places between which the highest rate of passenger fare is charged, giving the fares for each class, and the distances between the stations.

Uniform rates.

Are market tickets issued; if so, between what places, and at what proportion of the single fares?

Return tickets, third class:

Issued from Rhyl, „ Rhuddlan, „ St. Asaph, „ Trefnant to Denbigh, at 1½ single fare.

Give the average speeds of trains as follows:—

Average speed of express trains including stoppages - - Nil.

„ ordinary passenger trains - - - } 15 to 16 miles per hour.

„ parliamentary - - - - }

Give some general information as to the nature and extent of your special excursion traffic, stating the frequency of the excursion trains; the places between which they run; the fares charged per mile for each class; the number of passengers of each class generally carried in each train; and the average speed, including stoppages.

The excursion traffic of this line is 3rd class only; confined to the sea-bathing place of Rhyl in the summer months, with exceptions as under-stated.

Passengers by ordinary early and late trains.—Fare: Denbigh to Rhyl and back, 1*s.*, and other stations in proportion to distance. Excursions to Birkenhead and Liverpool about once a month; fare to Birkenhead, 3*s.*; to Liverpool, 3*s.* 2*d.*

INQUIRY No. 6.—As to Rates for Parcels.

Give, in reference to the lines included in your former returns, the general rates charged for parcel traffic, both by passenger and goods trains, according to weight and distance.

Also add particulars of any important exceptions made to these general rates.

This company adopt the scale of rates laid down by the Clearing House, and have no exceptions.

Vale of Clwyd Railway.—continued.

INQUIRY No. 7.—As to Charges for Horses, Carriages, and Dogs by Passenger Trains.

Insert in the following Table the rates charged for horses, carriages, and dogs carried by passenger trains on the lines included in your former returns.

What is the rate of insurance on horses exceeding the above-mentioned values?

Have no insured horse traffic.

State whether the rates charged for this kind of traffic are uniform, or if they are lower for the longer distances. If the latter, give the scale of distances and charges.

Uniform rates.

INQUIRY No. 8.—As to Charges for Live Stock by Goods Trains.

Insert in the following Table the rates charged, on the lines included in your former return, for live stock carried by goods trains.

Have no traffic locally, and for through traffic this company adopts London and North-western rates.

Name the stations between which the highest rates for the conveyance of live stock are charged, showing the charge for each descriptlon, and the distances between the stations.

The rates are uniform, but we have no local traffic.

Is there any special charge for cattle to the Royal Agricultural Society's shows? If so, state it.

Single rate for the double journey, supposing the returned unsold.

INQUIRY No. 9.—As to Charges at different Periods.

Give, for the lines included in your former return, the information in the annexed Table, attending to the following conditions—

The amounts are to represent the average rates charged per mile.

For goods they are to be the rates for long distances, and including terminal charges.

NOTICE.

The Company do not undertake or profess to supply engine power or waggons on all occasions, but only when their arrangements will permit.

Fractions of tons or miles to be charged as by Act.—Trucks and waggons, when off this Company's line, to be charged for by special agreement; and when used upon private branches, to be charged 1*d.* per ton for the first mile, and a ½*d.* per ton for every half mile, or fraction thereof, thereafter.

Demurrage on Waggons.—In addition to the ordinary carriage dues, the sum of 1*s.* 6*d.* for and in respect of every 24 hours' (or any part of 24 hours') detention that may occur, after the expiry of 12 hours from the arrival of the waggons at their destination will be regularly charged. Parties taking waggons into their lyes, and allowing them to be loaded, or remain there unloaded, also subject themselves to this charge.

Any trader who is desirous to save the above charges, can make arrangements for providing waggons for his own use, as he cannot without payment of the charges, be allowed to make use of the Company's waggons.

All dues are payable to the Company's collectors, at their respective offices, on the delivery of the traffic.

10*d.* Do the charges include returning empty waggons?	Yes.
11. Are the above charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways?	Nearly so.
12. If not, state the nature of the exceptions?	Exception, occasionally made by reducing the charges for long distances, or to enable traders to compete.
13. Is the traffic of this class conveyed at owner's risk, or otherwise?	At owner's risk.
14. Do you undertake to convey this class of traffic within a specified time?	No.
15. And to return the empty waggons within a specified time? And if so, in what time?	No.
16. Do you allow demurrage on owners' waggons when not returned within the specified time?	No.

FOR THOUGH TRAFFIC, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

17. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? — Yes generally, but not invariably.

18. Are junctions considered as stations for this class of traffic? — If this question means "Are all junctions considered as "stations affording public accommodation to take traffic to "or from them,"—the answer is, No.

19. If not, state the exceptions? — Because, where the junction is constructed merely for interchange of traffic between two or more railways, it may be at a place where there is no public road yielding access thereto.

CONTRACT CHARGES, WHETHER IN COMPANIES' OR IN OWNERS' WAGGONS.

21. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts? If so,—
a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?
b. Or how otherwise? — No.

22. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or conditions? — None.

2. Are the above mileage charges uniformly applied between all stations on your system of railways? — Yes.

3. If not, state the nature of the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions.

4. Is the traffic of these articles carried at the company's risk (excepting the articles otherwise specified)? — At company's risk.

5. If not, state in what respects you depart from this condition?

6. Do you undertake to deliver the traffic of articles in this return within a specified time? — No.

7. What time is allowed at the stations for loading and unloading this class of traffic? — 24 hours, and a few hours for unloading, according to circumstances.

8. For what period do you keep any of the articles in this return in your warehouses free of charge? — We do not warehouse.

9. What charge for warehousing is made after the period has expired?

10. What charge do you make for demurrage of waggons? — 3*s.* per waggon per day.

FOR THROUGH TRAFFIC.

11. Do you make through charges for this class of traffic with all other railway companies connected with your system by junctions? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions? — We make through charges with all railways in connection, but we do not book to stations south of London.

12. Are junctions considered as stations for the traffic of articles in this return? — Yes.

13. If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exception.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

15. Have you any scale of charges applicable to contracts, If so,— — No.

a. Is the charge based on a minimum annual payment, or on the quantity carried?

b. Or how otherwise?

16. Have you any special contracts independent of the foregoing scale of charges or condition? — No.

17. Is the traffic in all cases sent by the shortest railway route in connexion with your system of railways? If not, state the exceptions, and give an instance of each class of exceptions? — Not in all cases. We book to London and other stations in England by east and west coast routes, although there is a difference of distance.
